

Fieldfare

Common Pipistrelle
Pipistrellus pipistrellus

45 kHz

Soprano Pipistrelle
Pipistrellus pygmaeus

55 kHz

Wingspan: 19-23.5 cm
Smallest and most common species

Photo credit: Mereen Zjeroen

Fieldfare

Daubenton's Bat
Myotis daubentonii

45-50 kHz

Wingspan: 24-27.5 cm
a.k.a "The Water Bat", as it hunts close to the surface of water.

Photo credit: Gilles San Martin

Fieldfare

Noctule Bat
Nyctalus noctula

20 kHz

Wingspan: 32-40 cm

Largest species of bat by wingspan.
Roosts almost exclusively in tree holes.
Hawks over fields, diving steeply for prey.

Photo credit: Irene Mei

Fieldfare

Serotine Bat
Eptesicus serotinus

32 kHz

Wingspan: 32-38 cm

Largest species of bat by body length (8cm).
Roosts almost exclusively in buildings.

Photo credit: Simon Colmer