

Addendum – Exhibit B

Public Notice of Harm

A Call to Awaken

This addendum is an offering of Love. It serves as a call to awaken and a request for introspection.

As so eloquently said by Flo Aeveia Magdalena. “This is the end of the Free Will Experiment and the return to the Free Heart Experience.”

And so it is!

If you cannot hold the vibration of the heart, this will be a challenging transition for you. This is the choice point. It is time for the reckoning and weighing of the intent of each soul.

As you read this message and consider the questions herein, know that all thoughts, emotions, actions and words are recorded, acknowledged and observed by the Prime Creator who bears witness to All That Is.

The global population is under assault and you are either purposefully enabling it, sleeping through it, rising in spite of it, or too frightened and confused to move at all.

Which category do you feel you are among?

The jobs and duties of men and women have been compartmentalized such that many do not realize how their actions factor into the malicious events that are occurring. The very act of carrying on without recognition of what is occurring, perpetuates the continuation of the destruction of all of Life. Many of you have divested control of your own thoughts and actions by allowing external influences to dictate and direct your Life and steer you toward fear, anger and division. FEAR is False Evidence Appearing Real and must be abolished in order to see clearly.

Do you operate from a foundation of what is true, or of lies and false beliefs? How do you know?

Are you going through the motions of Life without attention to the consequences of your nescience, ignorance, acquiescence or malfeasance?

We are operating in an inverted reality where perversion, theft, lies and murder are normalized and encouraged, and this must be acknowledged and remedied. For decades we have been fed half truths and outright lies to lull our ability to consciously engage with our environment. By instilling fear and animosity between the people, those that desire power over us have divided and weakened us and we are dying because of it. Our free will has been usurped through multifaceted weaponry expressed through television, Hollywood, social media and otherwise. As we strive to fit in with the latest trend, we lose the connection to the Self and to our Source. We concern ourselves with superficial trivialities that ultimately have no bearing on improving the quality of our own lives or the lives of others.

We have not been given knowledge of, or access to, many of the subjects of study that are of crucial importance and that would help us navigate this realm as energy and light and plasma based Beings. We have many capacities that have been forgotten and have not been disclosed or accessible due to active poisoning, energetic/frequency weaponry and manipulation, and destruction and censoring of Ancient Wisdom and Knowledge. We don't hold the knowledge of the nature of reality nor the physics of our own Being and therefore look outside ourselves for identity and validation. What is true will never be found "out there".

When we strip away the physical aspect of our Being, we will acknowledge that we exist as electro-magnetic fields of sound, light and information and that the foundational technology that allows a Being to become manifest, is essentially the same for all of us. Equality is a function of the Essence of an individual, not an external ideology or physical appearance. Value is found in the Living Soul, not in money or things. We are hurting each other over perceived differences that are labels and ideas that do not reflect the true nature of our Divine Beingness and our Oneness. You are an Eternal Being and every thought, deed and word has Power and an effect on the whole of Creation and all other Beings.

Do you use the sound of your voice to hurt or to heal?

What kind of home and future are we going to leave for our children?

Awaken! Look around, rise up and stand for Love and Freedom for everyOne. We are responsible for our own actions and acquisition of knowledge. Self-governance is an essential but lost art and is the only way forward.

This is your opportunity to awaken to the True nature of Being and your responsibility to enact the Divine, Universal, Natural and Public Law of Be in Honor and Do No Harm. Look deeply into your Life and Soul.

What are you perpetuating by allowing external guidance to dictate your path, actions and freedom?

How are your actions factoring into the loss of Freedom and health for others?

Silence and acquiescence are no longer tolerable as the facts and evidence of harm are indisputable. Those that we have given our power to are killing us, literally. The organic government of The United States of America (major) has been usurped for over 160 years. And over time, so have the organic governments of most nations. This is not the government nor the life circumstances that were intended by our Founding Documents or our True and Divine Creator. We are currently "governed" by corporations whose only goals are to profit themselves at the expense of the Living people. True governance does not limit the functioning of, or destroy the system that it governs, but maximizes and expands the capacity of that system.

Is this what you experience from those that you call "leaders" and "govern-ments"?

We, the people, are the power that the malevolent ones among us are harnessing for their own destructive agenda.

Open your heart and feel in to the essence of your spirit, and make a choice.

Do you desire and align with Love and Life or the inversion thereof, evil/evil which is the death cult of antiquity?

The voice of the Divine is found through introspection and quieting the ramblings of the mind. This sound is not necessarily given in language but is felt within every cell of your Being as an experience that is beyond word or description. It is a knowing, a conviction, a feeling and an emanation of Love, that once acknowledged, overflows from your heart and guides you to bring Light and Love to your endeavors. Sound and thought are the foundation of creation. We are here as intermediary “creators” for the Prime Creator and thus we have a responsibility to create in Love and for the Good of all Beings, from a place a Clarity, Wisdom and Honor.

We desire to bring positive change through education, not through force nor by making others “wrong”. We have all been lied to by those in which we placed our trust. What is transpiring globally is not about left or right, or race or religion; it is about those who choose Life and those that choose to cause harm. We oppose the things and people whose actions and ideas are leading to death for the people, animals, the plant life and all that is vibrant and alive. It is time to weed out the lost souls from those that might have erred but may be redeemed through education and opportunity. We strive to free the people of mental, emotional, financial and physical enslavement and to show that through collaboration, nurturing and maximizing the unique talents and gifts of each soul, we can coexist in Harmony, Joy and Peace and build a World that is actually worth leaving for our offspring.

May these words touch and kindle your heart and essence so that you remember that you are a Beautiful and Divine Soul.

If, on the other hand, you are one of the soulless ones, may you find favor when your heart and intent are weighed against the Feather of Truth on the Scale of Justice.

May Peace and Freedom Be!
