Marshall-at-Arms Randell Rimbey read the jural assembly mission statement.

Lorrayne talked about the "Affirmation of Honor" document to explain it is a document that acknowledges a national will stand in honor to act as a jury member when the need arises. The questionnaire is to be attached to the affirmation.

Randell gave document committee report:

- Mediation phase continues to be worked on as part of the self-governance

- Mediation phase is private and used after the claims process

- Mediation phase reinforces idea people are responsible for their own actions

Lorrayne talking through the Jury and the processes of the jural system. Sovereign - "king of your domain", noting challenges, "your rights end, where my rights begin", laws of common law - harm to property or self

Lorrayne talking through the precipice of common law - building our structure

- Discussion around how do each people see the process of common law being effective;

- Common law holds strong to facts - truth - honor - do no harm, swift justice, involves citizen arrest

Lorrayne posing the question for all people to ponder: "What is an American and how do I fit into this"

Lorrayne ended the meeting at 7:51pm. Jural Assembly to reconvene on August 22, 2024 at 7:00pm.
