Virginia Assembly
Deputy Coroner
Affirmation of Duty

(To be read aloud by Recorder or witness):

The Deputy Coroner of the nation-state of Virginia must be of fiduciary mind and heart. This means the Prudent Man must be kind, generous, attentive, honest, trustworthy and carry burdens of care for your People, be of exemplary integrity and above all act in accordance with all God-given rights and Common Law of our land, God's land.

As Deputy Coroner I, Randell Alan Rimbey, promise to accurately record births and deaths to our land recording office with responsibility and accountability to the People in Good Faith?

As Deputy Coroner I, Randell Alan Rimbey, promise to be discrete, logical, attentive and loyal toward the people I serve as a Prudent Man no matter the circumstance?

As Deputy Coroner, I, Randell Alan Rimbey, will represent the interests and promote the good welfare of the People by assisting peacekeeping by fairly adjudicating and probating actions and decisions within our lawful court system no matter the outcome?

I, Randell Alan Rimbey, promise to operate within the framework of your position for the People, being of good Spirit, without craving money, power, prestige or any other ill-gotten motive?

I, Randell Alan Rimbey, understand that I can be fined, removed by recall from office, or even jailed during the term of your Deputy Coroner in the event you are found guilty of any of the above during the entire term of your service?

Therefore, Randell Alan Rimbey, by agreeing to the above considerations, responsibilities, and acknowledging your proper standing as a Prudent Man to delegate and serve the People of Virginia, we do hereby grant you the position of Deputy Coroner. So help us God.

I feel this part should be read by the recorder or witness to speak for the people
