The time limit within which to commence any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the District is governed by §1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless a shorter limitations period is specified by any other provision. Under §1094.6, any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the District must be filed no later than the 90th day following the date on which such decision becomes final. Any lawsuit or legal challenge, which is not filed within that 90-day period, will be barred. People wishing to challenge the nature of the above section in court may be limited to raising only those issues that were raised at the meeting described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the District at or prior to the meeting. In addition, judicial challenge may be limited or barred where the interested party has not sought and exhausted all available administrative remedies.
