ABOUT NARCOTIC OFFICERS MAGAZINE

Narcotic Officers Magazine is a professional publication dedicated to drug enforcement education and law enforcement support. As a for-profit entity operated by Fund Phase LLC, our mission is rooted in service: delivering vital information to agencies and the public while paying tribute to those who serve.

Our publication serves as a national platform for the exchange of ideas, helping law enforcement agencies stay informed on emerging trends and innovative strategies.

NATIONAL REACH & DISTRIBUTION

We are proud to be a trusted resource for agencies across the country. Our publication is distributed 3 times per year to a wide audience, including:

- Over 900 Sheriff Departments nationwide.
- First Responders and community agencies.
- A vast network of dedicated business community leaders.

IMPACT: YOUR SUPPORT IN ACTION

The revenue generated from our advertising partners directly funds critical initiatives:

Trauma Kits

Equipping underfunded officers with life-saving tactical safety equipment.

K9 Safety

Providing Narcan overdose kits and protection for active duty K9 units.

Youth Education

Supporting drug prevention programs and community outreach for parents and kids.

Department Support

Providing ballistic gear and essential supplies to agencies in need.
