About Company

MISSION STATEMENT

-To promote the exchange of ideas and information among law enforcement agencies and support groups, in particular those charged with the responsibility of combating the use and abuse of illicit drugs, and through that exchange, promote closer working relations among these different agencies and support groups in the United States.

-Narcotic Officers Magazine is a national publication distributed across the country to many law enforcement agencies, first responders and many business community leaders. Monies we receive from the advertisements are used to distribute the magazine at no charge, help support programs that teach kids about drug use, K9 programs and help our first responders get the safety equipment they need. Your advertisement helps make this publication possible. We couldn't do it without you.

FLOWOOD POLICE DEPARTMENT

Memo

To: Narcotic Officer's Magazine
From: Officer Jacob Mathis
Date: 12 February 2019
Re: IFAK Trauma Kit

Matt Neeley,

On the behalf of the Flowood Police Department, I wanted to thank you for the generous donations of the IFAK trauma kits. Many of the kits were distributed and put into place immediately upon receiving the shipment. Such donations like the IFAK trauma kits insure the safety of our officers and the public. We hope and pray that the kits are never tested and put to use, but if the time arises, it provides a peace of mind knowing that lifesaving kits are in place and ready to use.

Again, thank you for the generous donation of the IFAK trauma kits.

Sincerely,

Jacob Mathis
Flowood Police Department

Dea Agents Arrest Tucson Woman on Federal Charges For Selling Fentanyl Resulting In Three Overdoses, One Victim Died

MAY 09, 2019

Contact: Erica C. Curry
Phone Number: (602) 664-5609
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PHOENIX – DEA Phoenix Division Special Agent in Charge Doug Coleman announces the arrest of Jocelyn Lopez-Sanchez, a 22-year old Tucson woman who is now in custody following an indictment obtained by DEA agents Wednesday afternoon. Lopez-Sanchez was indicted by a federal grand jury on May 1, 2019.

The indictment and arrest of Lopez-Sanchez is the result of a DEA and Tucson Police Department investigation into the overdoses of three individuals, one who later died, on Nov. 1, 2018, in Tucson, Ariz. Lopez-Sanchez was identified through the investigation as the alleged supplier of fentanyl that resulted in one victim's death, and serious injury to the two remaining victims.

The DEA in Arizona has developed an initiative to review overdose fatalities in an effort to bring street dealers to face federal charges for supplying drugs resulting in the death of an individual—a crime that, under federal law, carries a mandatory minimum sentence of 20 years in prison and up to a maximum of life in prison. In addition to these charges, Lopez-Sanchez also faces two counts related to the alleged importation of fentanyl from Mexico.

Lopez-Sanchez turned herself in to federal agents without incident. This investigation was conducted by the DEA's Tucson District

Office and the Tucson Police Department and will be prosecuted by the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Arizona.

An indictment is simply a method by which a person is charged with criminal activity and raises no inference of guilt. An individual is presumed innocent until competent evidence is presented to a jury that establishes guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Dear Friend,

On behalf of the Narcotic Officers Magazine thank you for advertising.

Many law enforcement officers are underfunded and are unable to afford the lifesaving equipment they need and are the first on the scene to protect and save lives. Police officers play a central role in the law enforcement community. They monitor criminal activity, take part in community patrols, respond to emergency calls, issue tickets, make arrests, investigate crimes and testify in court as needed.

Your generosity is always noticed and appreciated. The reason we are able to provide support for law enforcement officers and agencies is because of you and your financial support. You make it possible. By placing an advertisement in the Narcotic Officers Magazine, you help us to:

- Buy trauma kits, tactical kits, ballistic vest, mask and other safety equipment.
- Support drug education.
- Support K9 programs.
- Promote the exchange of ideas and information among law enforcement agencies.
- Distribute our publication.

Your tax-deductible advertisements make it possible for the Narcotic Officers Magazine to succeed in our mission.

Thanks again for your support.

With Sincere Gratitude,

Narcotic Officers Magazine and Team
