

The All Sufficiency Of Christ From Hebrews and Colossians

Heb 1 (WEB)

¹ God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, ² has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds. ³ His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purified us of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high

Col 1 (WEB)

¹³ who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love; ¹⁴ in whom we have our redemption,^[b] the forgiveness of our sins; ¹⁵ who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. ¹⁶ For by him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and for him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. ¹⁸ He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. ¹⁹ For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him; ²⁰ and through him to reconcile all things to himself, by him, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of his cross.

Heb 1

(1 God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways,)

2 has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son,

whom he appointed heir of all things,

through whom also he made the worlds.

3 His Son is the radiance of his glory,

the very image of his substance,

and upholding all things by the word of his power,

when he had by himself purified us of our sins,

sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

Jesus Is Everything!

Col 1

13 who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love;

14 in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins;

15 who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

16 For by him all things were created, [in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers;]

all things have been created through him, and for him.

17 He is before all things,

and in him all things are held together.

18 He is the head of the body, the assembly,

who is the beginning,

the firstborn from the dead;

that in all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him;

20 and through him to reconcile all things to himself, [by him, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens,] having made peace through the blood of his cross.
