Emergency Protocol

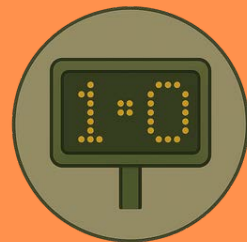

Section 1: Preventive Care

- ✓ Bring coffee or Diet Coke without being asked – consider it your most important job of the day.
- ✓ Eyebrow appointments are sacred – there is only one true brow lady. Respect the cycle. Do not make her reschedule.
- ✓ When all else fails, buy her a hippo.

Section 2: Traveling

- ✓ Bring snacks. Then backup snacks. Then emergency snacks.
 - If you think it's too many—you're wrong.
- ✓ You will never get the window seat again.
 - Just accept your role as “aisle guy” for life.
- ✓ Delta Comfort+ is tolerable. First Class is ideal.
 - Paige believes boarding in Zone 1 is a basic human right.

Section 3: Sports

- ✓ Paige loves sports – swimming, softball, volleyball, football, hockey
 - And she keeps score – even when it is not that kind of game.
- ✓ Saturdays are for Michigan
 - If you are wearing scarlet and gray, just know you are on thin ice.
- ✓ Sundays are for the Lions – She will support your Browns fandom – until you give up this silliness and become a Lions fan.

Section 4:

Best Friends

- ✓ Paige's friendships set the standard.
 - She is fun, caring, and fiercely protective of her people.
- ✓ The Forever BFF – Carly: The sweetest, kindest best friend you could ask for. But Craig, Carly will make sure you treat her right.
- ✓ Craig: The New Recruit.
 - You're not just marrying Paige – Membership comes with laughs, loyalty, and lots of love.

Section 5:

System Origin

- ✓ Paige and Michelle talk every day – a lot!
 - At a minimum of twice, unlimited texts, and bonus FaceTimes.
- ✓ What do they talk about you ask? Celia, shopping, nothing, Amazon deliveries, and accept the fact that you're a recurring topic.
- ✓ They are true partners in crime.
 - Remember everything good about Paige comes from her mom.

Section 6:

The “I’m Fine” Mode

- ✓ “I’m fine” means something is wrong – you’re in trouble now. Your Goal? Figure out what secret she’s not telling you.
- ✓ Apologize for something – even if you are not sure what.
- ✓ Never suggest Paige is overreacting – unless you want to be sleeping with the hippos.

Section 7:

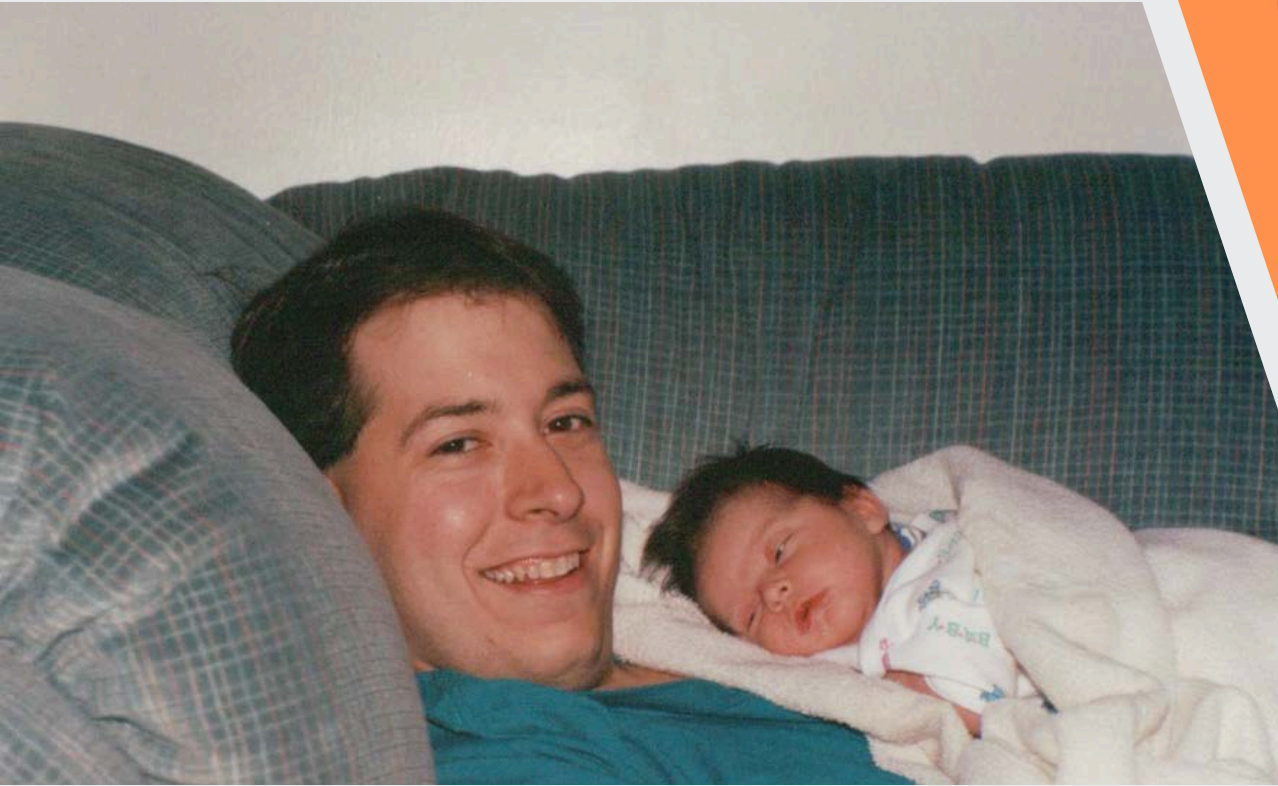

Parent Upgrade

- ✓ January 13, 2024, parent mode was installed for you both – comes with lots of hugs, a bit of chaos, and a lifetime of love.
- ✓ If you haven't realized, Craig, you are raising a tiny version of Paige – big eyes, full of sparkle, and a bit of a trouble maker.
- ✓ Watching Paige be a mom is the greatest joy of my life – and possibly the most terrifying because now there are two of them.

Section 8: The “Craig Bundle”

- ✓ Setup was quick – one day he showed up, hung out, went to Greece with us, moved in, became a dad and now a husband.
- ✓ Craig’s features include an excellent heart, high patience, and perfect sense of when just to nod.
- ✓ Craig is the reason Paige smiles a little bit brighter, she is overwhelmed with joy and he is fully committed to his two girls.

Section 9:

Warranty & Returns

- ✓ There is no fine print here – you married the whole package. Paige has a big heart, is a wonderful mom and has an even bigger love that is yours forever.
- ✓ She is yours now, but she will always be my little girl. You don't get to return her – you just get to keep choosing her every single day.
- ✓ My job is not over; it's just changed. I've handed her off, and I trust you to keep her safe and keep her smiling.
- ✓ For exactly 382 months she is the best thing that ever happened to me. Now, she is the best thing that ever happened to you.

Section 10:

Emergency Protocol

✓ Craig, I know keeping this manual with you forever might be a bit.... impractical. One day you are going to stay out too late or load the dishwasher wrong and you will realize 'I need the Paige manual' now! I didn't want you to have to panic and search the whole house. I wanted to make this easy on you so the whole manual is available 24/7 at:
