

PNW Coast Guide Service Cancellation/Refund Policy

PNW Coast Guide Service clients may cancel up to 90 days prior to their scheduled hunt and receive a refund of half (50%) of their deposit. The client must provide the scheduled hunt dates and reason for the cancellation.

There are no refunds of deposits if the client cancels within 90 days of the scheduled hunt. The client must provide the scheduled hunt dates and reason for the cancellation.

If the client fails to pay the outstanding balance on or before the first day of the agreed scheduled hunt date will be considered a cancellation by the client and the client's deposit will not be refunded.

There is no guarantee that a client will harvest an animal while hunting, therefore, no refund will be paid if a client doesn't harvest an animal.

Under certain circumstances, PNW Coast Guide Service will not offer refunds, credits, or alternative bookings to clients. These circumstances include, but are not limited to, weather related disruptions, natural disasters, airline delays and cancellations, electrical outages, acts of terror, Acts of God(s), or other circumstances deemed to be outside of the control of the client or PNW Coast Adventures.

In the event PNW Coast Guide Service cancels the scheduled hunt the client will receive a full refund.
