News from the Skeet Chairmen:

New Items…

- Shop Vacs have been placed in the high house and low house. Shooters are asked to vacuum up clay fragments that accumulate on the arms and around the base of each machine
- Please reload each machine after every round of shooting and before beginning the next round.
- IMPORTANT REMINDER: Guests must pay guest prices ($3.50 per round); their rounds cannot be punched against a member's card.

Previously Published…

- The skeet log has been redesigned to include "Time In" and "Time Out" for each member and guest.
- Please make one line entry per person; do not combine names; and if it is a guest, please verify that a waiver form was signed.
- If purchasing a skeet ticket, please fill out BOTH the line on the manila envelope that corresponds to the number AND a payment envelope completely; place the payment envelope in the mailbox labeled for skeet payments.
- All skeet payment envelopes must be dropped in the skeet payment mailbox. Please do not leave them loose in the logbook.
- The Club calendar has been updated to reflect Sundays on which the U.S. Coast Guard Academy (CGA) Skeet & Trap Team practice, thanks to the generosity of the club. On these Sundays, the Skeet and Trap field is NOT closed. Club members who wish to shoot on Sundays between 1:00pm and 6:00pm are welcome to show up and you will be placed in a squad with our cadets. CGA Skeet Coach and club member Will Smith is an NRA certified Range Safety Officer. He is willing to be with you and offer advice on your skeet and trap techniques. If a full team of shooters comes on any given Sunday, the cadets will step aside while you play through.
