

Team Coaching Impact on Team Effectiveness

1. Why is a teaming mindset vital to organizational performance and business success - given the range of challenges in the current state of our world?
2. What conditions need to be in place for a team to be results-driven, effective, valuable - and coachable?
3. How is team coaching different from team facilitation, advising, and building? What does a typical team coaching engagement look like? How do high performance teams benefit from impactful team coaching?
4. What is behind the BREAKOUTcx 'team success partnership' that inspires a team to be as effective as possible and constructively drive change within the whole organization?

Does your organization
have a Teaming Culture?

2021 FG Inc. research with more than 2,000 executives reveals teams are under performing:

- 81% say that their team is not operating at anywhere near its full potential.
- 74% of teams don't believe members are accountable for shared goals.
- 71% of teams are failing to engage in the most critical business problems collaboratively.
- 63% of teams don't think they're good at prioritizing and managing competing demands.

Team coaching fast-tracks team growth and success!
As a committed partner, BREAKOUTcx works 'with' the team, not 'for' the team – made possible by a structured and adaptable team coaching approach.
