

Greetings from Dafydd

We are all familiar with the fiasco's surrounding COVID-19 and the pantomime performances of our leaders so it's no surprise to any of us in Wales to learn that all formal Rambler walks are again suspended from 20 December until further notice. The same applies to Tim Taclo Llwybrau activities, I am afraid Graham.

Roy has been beavering away trying to find a simpler, flexible way to plan, advertise and book walks for us in Eryri Ramblers. They are published on our mobile-friendly website eryriramblers.org/walks for booking and are also notified on Eryri Facebook This looks promising and may well be our preferred solution in the long term. Please use this new format to plan and book your walks.

Even though we cannot hold any group walks at the moment, prepare walks now for when we will be free of these restrictions.

I hope you are all keeping well and safe, no doubt looking forward to Christmas Day, so I wish you all a very Happy Christmas and a healthy and peaceful New Year.

Cofion,

Dafydd
