Sat	21-03-20	Yr Eifl and Tre'r Ceiri	Most people will be familiar with these sites, but this walk visits both, and approaches from a different direction than other popular routes. The walk incorporates meadows, country lanes, forest, old quarry tracks and mountain track, and it views quite varied scenery. We leave the parking area and walk most of the way around Yr Eifl, gradually increasing our height. Then an ascent to the summit followed by a short descent to Tre'r Ceiri. We then descend by the direct path back to the roadside.	Circular	SH380444	Roadside Lay-by	10:00	Moderate	B	6	Richard	07715 871880	No dogs please

Sat	28-03-20	Llyn Padarn and Slate Quarries	We will walk in a clockwise direction around Llyn Padarn and passing above Vivian Quarry and into the Dinorwig quarries. The aim of this walk is then to ascend high into the quarries to look at some of the industrial history of the area. There are accessible areas where few people visit. There will be opportunities to walk through some tunnels and to see some of the old buildings and much of the abandoned machinery. Descent will be down the east side of Vivian quarry and return to Llanberis. There is no scrambling involved but at times we will be on broken slate steps. Bring a torch.	Circular	SH578603	Llyn Padarn Llawn y Cewri, Giant Sword pay CP (Y Glyn free CP 5 min walk)	10:00		B	6	Richard	07715 871880	No dogs please
