AN ENDLESS PASSION

Martial arts runs in my blood. My father is a master of Seven Star Praying Mantis, Wingchun, and Tai Chi. At twelve, he began teaching me these practices and incorporated them into my upbringing. My introduction to Muay Thai was in college and I officially began competing. I now have over sixteen years of martial arts practice and eight years of experience training with Muay Thai. The explosiveness behind Muay Thai is the best form of organized chaos that a person can experience. I am in love with the culture and practice of this art form.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Our partnership would allow me to represent your company as a brand ambassador. I would help your company get significant brand visibility by reaching a passionate audience who will come to associate your brand with the excitement and athleticism of Muay Thai. This could open the door to many networking opportunities within the fighting world. The positive publicity can also boost sales with the alignment of your brand and the sport of Muay Thai. Your sponsorship would help fund travel, equipment, supplements, and more. Your support and potential sponsorship will allow me to thrive and accomplish many goals within my fighting career while representing your company.

GOALS

Your sponsorship will help me achieve the following goals while representing your company.

Current Goal: Training in Chiang Mai, Thailand. Thailand is the motherland of Muay Thai. To achieve mastery of this sport and become a champion, I must train at its source.

Long-Term Goal: My goal is to become a national and international champion. Your support and potential sponsorship will allow me to achieve my goal of being WBC Champ and it will fast pass me into the world of One Championship, and allow me to fight in major championships in Thailand.

AFFILIATED GYMS

Bridging the gap between East and West Coast Muay Thai fighters in the U.S. is important to me and one of my goals. These gyms have been pivotal in my training for fights. They are places that I consider a home away from home. I would love to inspire a collaboration or partnership between gyms I have worked with in the Southwest and gyms I have worked with on the East Coast. Kingdom Muay Thai, Disciple MMA Academy, Nobody's Villain, and United Fit.

SUPPORTING COMMUNITIES

A portion of all proceeds will go to two community based centers that are close to my heart. Minara Muslim Community Center of Albuquerque dedicates much of their resources into feeding the impoverished community of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Labour of Love enhances and provides educational resources, medical supply accessibility, and agricultural ventures that benefit the health and financial investments of all local residents of the Tumfa community in Ghana, Africa.

A sponsorship with me will not only elevate my fighting career but will also help build up communities.
