

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND YOGA

SPS provides structured physical education, that is, a traditional PE class or a yoga class, at least twice weekly for all students in Kindergarten through 8th grade.

Healthy children make stronger students, and stronger students lead to healthier communities. In addition to the prevention of medical problems, research supports that regular physical education is directly linked to higher achievement in academics.