Summary

We are a membership based indoor golf studio in Queen's Park, North West London. We are building a golf community in North West London, a space where our members can practice consistently so they can enjoy their time out on the course more, a space where our members can engage and enjoy golf together and a space where we can encourage the younger generation to engage with golf more frequently.

We are looking for someone who will act as our General Manager, be responsible for looking after existing members, membership sales, the calendar, external events and contribute to the growth path of the business.

This will ideally be a combined role as a junior pro to run our junior program, this will include daily group kids sessions and one day of weekend availability to deliver private lessons.

We are a young company so this will be a varied role with lots of opportunity to learn and grow.

We are looking for someone:

- With a positive, friendly and welcoming manner.
- Experience in hospitality, golf and face to face sales.
- An urgency to hit the ground running, ensure every trial and member is looked after and followed up with.
- Attention to detail and proactivity across every member interaction.
- Ability to multitask and willingness to work across the business
