Now Abel kept flock, and Cain worked the soil. ← In the harvest time Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the Lord. → But Abel also brought an offering → fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The Lord looked with favor on Abel and his offering, ↑ but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favor. So Cain was angry and grumbled, ↓ and he said to the Lord, “I have brought you the best of my flock, and I have given you the firstborn of them, but you did not look with favor on my offering and my sacrifice. But you did look with favor on the offering of my brother. His sacrifice was more than mine. Why have you been so angry? Why have you grumbled?” The Lord said to Cain, “If you do right, will not your sacrifice be accepted? But if you do not do right, your sacrifice is rejected. Are you not the one who has done wrong? Therefore, you must be ruled by it.” →
