Cooking

Follow the recipes to make the cookies or brownies. Ask an adult to help
Share them with someone.

Sharon's' brownie recipe

1. Melt 330g (12 oz) dark chocolate and 180g (6 ½ oz) over hot water or in a microwave.
2. In a separate bowl beat until creamy 3 large eggs with 270g (9 ½ oz) sugar.
3. Add the chocolate mixture to the egg mixture and add 100g (4oz) self-raising flour.
4. Pout 1/3 – ½ into a square tray
5. Add a layer of broken white or milk chocolate, walnuts, etc to taste
6. Pour remaining mixture on top to cover.
7. Bake at 170c for 25-35 minutes until a knife comes out clean

Deep dark chocolate chip cookies

8oz / 200g self raising flour (I use wholemeal - it's nice)

2 oz / 50g Cocoa Powder

12 oz /300g dark chocolate

12 oz / 300g brown sugar (white will do if that's what you have but brown gives that je ne sais quoi!)

8 oz / 200g butter

3 eggs

400g chocolate chips / chunks

1tsp Vanilla extract (optional)

1. Switch on oven to 325F / 150C /Gas 3
2. Melt the dark chocolate and set aside to cool
3. Place butter and sugar in food processor and beat
4. Add eggs one at a time, beating between each addition
5. Add vanilla and beat
6. Add melted chocolate and beat
7. Add flour & cocoa and beat
8. Add chocolate chips and stir / mix on low until evenly distributed
9. Drop heaped teaspoons of mixture 6 to a baking sheet (they spread)
10. bake for around 20 minutes - take them out when they look slightly underdone as they harden on cooling.

Science - Glitter volcano

1. Bicarbonate of soda, vinegar, glitter.
2. Put the bicarbonate of soda in a clear container.
3. Add the glitter.
4. Add a generous quantity of vinegar.
5. Watch the bubbles life up the glitter, like a volcano.
6. Find out why the bubbles form.
