The Domino Effect to Exponentially Growth Your Business

One of the biggest struggles for most business owners is lackluster or inconsistent client growth. Consequently, it is easy to be seduced by sparkly objects (like a new website, expensive lead gen software or services or more courses promising results where you hear a whole bunch of theory but have no actionable plan after dropping big $$). STOP THE INSANITY.

Business is not a the “Field of Dreams” where if you simply build it (or post about it on social media) droves of clients will show up on your door step.

You need to understand the Domino Affect and be intentional with your client attraction strategy by consistently building your audience well before you make your offer. Not doing this at all or haphazardly is the EXACT reason your sales are what they are. Fractured to Focused: 3 Non-negotiables You Need to Focus on to Achieve Consistent Client Growth

You are working hard and hustling in your business but continue to struggle with consistent client growth (or maybe have no clients at all yet). Panic has set in and you are looking for the silver bullet to turn things around or you might just have to go back to a traditional J.O.B.

Perhaps you're thinking that a new website is the answer. Or hiring someone to do SEO on your current site. Or paying for Facebook ads to boost visibility. Or that investing in expensive funnels or lead generation software are what you need or buying followers. HINT: It is NONE of those things that is the problem.

Yes, you might need to invest in some of these services down the line however right now you are spinning in circles focusing on the wrong actions that will drive your business forward. Here you will learn how to get laser focused on 3 ORGANIC activities that you need to focus on daily to see consistent growth. These building blocks are essential and help you get off the crazy train you are on right now that isn't resulting in client growth.

Come to this presentation and you will learn:

- The 3 top priorities that actually drive visibility that you need to focus on daily.
- Tips on how to implement these 3 strategies.

To go from struggling and living for the weekend, to prioritizing your dreams, your health and possibly starting your own business? This is your roadmap & the time is NOW. Here you will learn how to rebuild, define success on your own terms, discover new ways to earn income and possibly create a future for yourself that is job optional.

Come to this presentation and you will learn:

- To take an inventory of where you are with 5 key aspects of your life; set short term goals to make improvements in areas that you have neglected while you made sacrifices for your job at the expense of your wellbeing.
- To rebuild your self-confidence and improve your mental, physical and emotional/spiritual health.

Stand Out from the Sea of Sameness: Stories Sell, Facts Tell

Are You Finally Ready to Learn EXACTLY What to Do AND HOW to Do It in Regards to Getting More Clients in Your Business? I'm talking about making YOU your brand, not what you do or who you serve. Come to this session and learn how to own your own story and using it to illustrate how you are uniquely positioned as a guide to help your clients move from pain to a compelling future. A guide worth paying $$$ for. If you fail to do this, you'll be wasting time, money and not seeing the traction needed to make the shift from employee to successful business owner. You will keep making the same mistakes in networking meetings and client prospect calls and wonder why you are not making progress. That could lead you to question if you really have what it takes to become a successful entrepreneur and plant a seed of doubt about pursuing your dreams of living life on your own terms.

Come to this presentation and learn:

- How to incorporate personal story to instantaneously build credibility and connection with potential clients and collaboration partners.
- How to speak directly to your audience in a way that breaks through the clutter and builds interest.
- The 2 principles you need to understand and utilize in all of your communication in order to turn client interest into client action.

Permission Granted: Writing Your Own Permission Slip

Do you often feel like you're doing things others want you to do because you "should" do it versus having a true genuine desire to? Do you feel like you don't often allow yourself to go after YOUR big dreams and goals and instead are spending your best energy in building someone else's dreams? Has your definition of success changed in recent years and yet you feel measured by an out-of-date yardstick but don't know how to embrace a new definition?

In this presentation we will discuss instances where it is healthy and important to give yourself permission, without feeling guilty, to do things the way you want. Stop waiting for someday to get what you want; you deserve more now. This is a hands-on experience where you will begin retraining your subconscious about the new definition of success you are going to live by.

Come to this presentation and learn:

- To define success on your own terms for THIS season of your life and the future you are creating.
- To retrain your subconscious and change the inner dialog about how you want to live your life.
- Write your own permission slips that will become your guiding principles.
