

Waddington Summer Concert Series

Keep the Music Alive 2025. This year features eight concerts, including three bands making their debut on the pavilion stage and five returning favorites.

July 4th, the sensational season kicks off with the annual Alice Carr Dedication concert headlined by Bluebird. This remarkable band will captivate the audience with a fusion of Pop, Rock, and Country, drawing inspiration from artists such as Lynyrd Skynyrd, the Allman Brothers, Sheryl Crow, and Sarah McLachlan. Gather your family and friends for an enjoyable experience!

July 11th, we welcome Tas Cru, who has just returned from a successful tour in Europe. Tas has previously delighted WCS fans with his distinctive interpretation of the blues and boasts five albums to his name. He is a seasoned performer and a true crowd favorite!

July 18th, WCS features Double Axel who will deliver a three-hour concert. Alex, Rob, and Frank, who are well-known to WCS audience, will entertain a large crowd with the beloved songs of their youth. We are excited and honored to have them back on the pavilion stage this year with sponsorship from Seaway Auto Sales and Car Wash/Premier Self Storage.

July 25th, from Liverpool NY, watch out!!! Here comes Dirtroad Ruckus. This band is new to the pavilion stage so come on down and give them a warm welcome. This group drives 'Modern Country' showcasing covers of Luke Bryan, Jason Aldean, Eric Church, Creedence Clearwater and many other favorites.

August 1st get ready to rock Irish style with Knoddy Paddy on the pavilion stage for the first time. This band specializes in 'Celtic Rock' and 'Speed Folk'. This is a group of uniquely talented musicians that you won't want to miss, so step out and join in for a rocking good time.

August 8th, in conjunction with Homecoming, SFM presents a 4-hour concert. Again, these guys really don't need any introduction, and we are guaranteed to see an outstanding show. Sponsored by Dan Rose Memorial Golf Tournament, St Lawrence Recreation, and the Waddington Homecoming Committee.

August 15th, WCS audience is ecstatic to welcome back Leave Those Kids Alone, for a 3-hour concert. If you caught them last year, you know that these young musicians are immensely talented and are on their way to a professional career. You can say "I saw them when..."

August 22, WCS season ends on a great note as always with returning favorite Northbound. This group of local guys never fail to delight with perfect renditions of pop, folk, and rock classics.

The Waddington Summer Concert Series is brought to you through the generous donations of our local businesses, organizations, and individuals and we can't thank them enough. We will proudly keep you posted as our loyal sponsors are aligned with a date and group. If you are interested in being a sponsor or patron, you can find information on the website.
