

RED SCORPION RISING

The Third Book in the Jack Kendall Series | by Patrick Greenwood

ABOUT THE NOVEL

Jack Kendall is home and ready for peace, but the world has other plans. In Beijing, new President Hai Ming orders the invasion of Taiwan. In Budapest, ex-KGB hacker Dimi Zosh plots to steal $25 billion in Bitcoin. A ghost called Yellowlayer unleashes Komodo kill squads across three continents. And deep in the Australian outback, the NSA's most dangerous secret, a deep-cover team codenamed Red Scorpion, is finally activated.

PRAISE

★★★★★ "It reads like a season of an international espionage series, with short chapters, frequent location changes, technical problems, political confrontations, and action sequences that keep the pressure building."

— Literary Titan, 5-star review
