

OUR MISSION IS TO EMPOWER CHILDREN & THEIR FAMILIES TO SPRING FORWARD

WE NURTURE RESILIENT HEARTS AND ENVIRONMENTS BY CONNECTING FAMILIES AND EDUCATORS WITH EMPOWERING EXPERIENCES, RESOURCES & SUPPORTS

CHARM offers:

Professional Development & Training: Interactive social, emotional, and mental health workshops focused on easy, no-cost tools and resources. Workshops are tailored for youth, parents, and educators from pre-kindergarten through university.

Research grounded to:

- Improve academic achievement and positive coping skills
- Reduce behavioral and medical interventions
- Improve positive health outcomes (including family health) into adulthood
- Have a positive impact on overall school culture, and much more!

Camp Druzy: CHARM's signature, no-cost, overnight camp for families with grieving children. Available both in-person and online in English and Spanish.

Four days of positive experiences for the entire family to:

- Learn evidence-based, resiliency-building skills and tools
- Strengthen confidence, a sense of connection, creativity, and more in culturally appropriate and trauma-informed ways
- Connect with other grieving children and adults at their same school
- Transform grief together in a comfortable and fun setting
- Learn about CHARM and stay connected with us for additional resources, including follow-up events and family supports

Tapestry: CHARM's basic needs assistance program for low-income families with children who are grieving.

Before school and winter break, families of referred students receive:

- Backpacks, seasonal clothing, hygiene kits, books, and creative expression kits
- Gift cards (for parents to use for themselves and each child)
- An invitation to attend Camp Druzy for the entire family at no-cost, giving families a fun experience to look forward to together
- Emergency hotel accommodations, for those in-need

"This was the most heartfelt and rewarding workshop I have ever attended. Thank you so much. This has given me a TREMENDOUS drive and passion within me to try to change the world and make the good/greatness come out of all of us."
