

Saman Shahi Bio (elevator pitch) (100 words)

Saman Shahi is a Juno and Dora Nominated composer, and conductor based in Toronto with a global track record of notable performances, commissions, broadcasts and publications.

He is a Member of the Canadian League of Composers, the Canadian Music Centre and SOCAN. He is the Music Director of the Peterborough Concert band, a Teaching Artist with the Canadian Opera Company, and the Artist in Residence with the Pro Coro Canada (2026-2028). His composition albums, “Breathing in the Shadows” [Leaf Music – Juno Nominated], “Microlocking” [People|Places|Records], and “Fragments” [Redshift] were released in 2020, 2021 and 2026.