The Les Cheneaux Islands were ranked the #1 Alluring Michigan Boating Spot by Pure Michigan and the area, including Cedarville and Hessel, has been designated by The Nature Conservancy as one of the Last Great Places in the Western Hemisphere, due to its pristine water, air, and woodlands.

Our extraordinary location offers visitors many resources for year-round, nature-based adventures, providing the perfect backdrop for outdoor activities like biking, hiking and bird watching. You can even tour a local sugar bush to see how maple syrup is made, stop by a marina to catch a glimpse of craftsmen restoring antique boats, or visit our local farmers and artisan market. Whatever you do while visiting the Les Cheneaux Islands, you are sure to leave with countless memories.
