Dear District 15 Community:

It is with great pleasure that I proudly inform you that Nicole Lanzillotto has been appointed Deputy Superintendent of District 15 effective October 25, 2021.

Nicole Lanzillotto has been a part of the District 15 Community as a special education teacher, Assistant Principal and Principal of the Boerum Hill School for International Studies for the past 16 years. Nicole was born in the Bronx and educated in the NYC public school system. She attended LaGuardia Community College in Queens before graduating from Smith College where she majored in Racial Politics. A committed leader of the citywide focus on equity, Nicole has worked on the District Equity Team and at the school level for the past four years to support extensive work on disproportionality with Dr. Eddie Fergus, and with the District Equity Congress under the auspices of The Minor Collective before transitioning to her new role. Further she has served as a mentor principal supporting new school leaders, districtwide and has served for five years as the principal at the Boerum Hill School for International Studies.

Please join me in congratulating Nicole and in welcoming her as the newly appointed Deputy Superintendent of District 15.
