MINI BIO

Philadelphia-born and Dallas-based DJ and producer Kahnti blends Afro, deep, and soulful house into uplifting sets that connect with the crowd. From festival stages to intimate dancefloors, she brings movement, joy, and purpose to every performance. For Kahnti, house music is therapy.

SHORT BIO

Philadelphia-born and Dallas-based DJ, producer, and songwriter Kahnti brings Afro, deep, and soulful house together in sets built to move people and lift their spirits. A recording artist with releases on Quantize and Unquantize, she has performed at BBE Store London, It'll Do Dallas, and House of Vibes New York, and recently headlined the Capital House Music Festival in the DC area and Seattle's Monkey Loft.

Kahnti is also the creator and host of House Music Therapy, a biweekly livestream and radio series rooted in healing, connection, and the power of house music. She will bring House Music Therapy to Amsterdam during ADE week with a performance at Barbara Tucker's The Love House party.

FULL BIO

Kahnti is a Philadelphia-born, Dallas-based DJ, producer, and songwriter blending Afro, deep, and soulful house. Raised by musician parents, she developed an early connection to music that shapes her productions and performances. Her sets move from deep, soulful moments to joyful, high-energy peaks, guided by her connection with the crowd. Whether playing an intimate room or a festival stage, Kahnti aims to help people move, connect, and leave feeling better than they arrived.

Kahnti's performances move between deep grooves, uplifting vocals, and powerful rhythms. She has performed at BBE Store London, It'll Do Dallas, and House of Vibes New York alongside Tony Touch. Her Miami Music Week appearances include Barbara Tucker's Let the Singer Be Heard and the System Pool Party alongside Oscar P.

In 2026, Kahnti headlined the Capital House Music Festival in the DC area and performed a three-hour headline set at Seattle's Monkey Loft. She will also perform at Barbara Tucker's The Love House party in Amsterdam during ADE week.

As a producer, Kahnti has released standout tracks including "My Boo Thang" and "Mirage" on Unquantize Records, "Energy," featured on a #1 Traxsource compilation, and "Free'dom" on her own imprint, Ladybug Recordings. Her releases also include the Drive Me to the Moon EP. Her album One Love, released on Unquantize Records, charted in the Top 20 on Traxsource for multiple weeks. It received support from DJs including DJ Spen and Thommy Davis, along with coverage from Blues & Soul Magazine and other music platforms.

Kahnti is the creator and host of House Music Therapy, a biweekly livestream and radio series centered on healing, connection, and joy. Her mission is to inspire movement and leave people feeling better through sound. Her performances are House Music Therapy in real time.
