

You're not alone, we can help
www.archway-clinics.com
913-350-0700
archwayclinics@gmail.com

Monthly Mental

Newsletter

July, 2026 Mental health, for ALL

July is globally recognized as BIPOC Mental Health Month (also known as National Minority Mental Health Awareness Month). Established by the Mental Health America organization, this observance focuses on the unique challenges that marginalized communities face regarding mental health access, cultural competency, and stigma.

We are still searching for 1 more female, full time LPC or LCSW
Email
archwayclinics@gmail.com

Top News

Staff Spotlight:

- Welcome Chad, our current Psych student
- Congrats Lexi on becoming our Intake specialist
- Big "thank you" to Haylee, our Executive Assistant, who has been putting in overtime to prepare for our busiest time of the year

Upcoming Group Therapy:

INTRO TO OCD:
Saturday 8/8/26
1pm-3pm, held by
Ramzee Robinson @
Bridgeway Clinics

Sunshine Stories:

- Better Youth Data: The Kansas Communities That Care student survey showed depression symptoms among participating kids dropped from 38% in 2022 to 30% in 2026, alongside decreases in reported suicidal thoughts and substance use
- Kansas was selected as a core state for the Department of Labor National Expansion of Employment Opportunities Network (NEON) program to remove workplace barriers for individuals with mental health conditions