

Life application Ideas For Bless This Home-Purity

1. "Spiritual Home Inspection": Have families conduct a "spiritual home inspection" where they go room by room and evaluate what influences (media, objects, activities) are present and whether they promote purity or pollution. Create a checklist for families to use.
2. "Purity Jar Challenge": Give each family a jar and some marbles. For a month, add a white marble for pure choices and a black marble for impure ones. Visually see how choices impact the home's spiritual atmosphere.
3. "Family Armor Craft": Have families create a physical representation of the armor of God (Ephesians 6) using household items. Display it prominently as a reminder of spiritual protection.
4. "Media Fast and Feast": Challenge families to a week-long fast from secular media, replacing it with faith-building alternatives. Discuss the impact at the end.
5. "Spiritual Decluttering Day": Organize a church-wide day where families intentionally remove items or influences from their homes that don't align with purity and Christ-centeredness.
6. "Purity Pledge Plaque": Have families create and sign a "purity pledge" for their home, outlining commitments to maintain a pure environment. Frame and display it.
7. "Prayer Walk Your Home": Encourage families to do a literal prayer walk through their house, praying for purity and God's presence in each room.
8. "Family Purity Time Capsule": Create a time capsule with items representing pure choices and influences. Open it in a year to reflect on growth.
