

The Yen Wo Society and Chinese Community Services Centre (CCSC) Welcomes you to the Victoria Premiere of

Benevolence

A Documentary about legacy, identity and the preservation of stories

Benevolence examines and celebrates the history of the Hakka (客家) Peoples in Canada - from their 2000-year migration, struggles and triumphs as early Chinese-Canadians, to present day efforts with cultural preservation of the Tam Kung Temple in Victoria's Historic Chinatown

Sunday, February 4, 2024
2 - 4 pm

Chinese Community Services Centre
655A Herald Street, Victoria, BC

Meet
Kevin Matthew Wong (he/him)

Photo Credit - Dahlia Katz

Hakka Chinese-Canadian theatre creator, performer, video artist, and producer whose work tours widely across Canada and internationally. Kevin is the co-founder and Artistic Director of Broadleaf Creative – a company that produces social and climate justice-informed theatre.

Kevin's current series of projects entitled "Benevolence" celebrate Hakka history and stories in Canada. The series includes a documentary film about Victoria's Tam Kung Temple, a theatre play, and a museum installation that will premiere at Toronto's Market Gallery between May and July 2024

Free Admission
Donations to the Tam Kung Temple preservation fund appreciated

Visit the Tam Kung Temple
1713 Government Street
Open daily: 10am - 4pm

For Info/Event Registration
Please scan the QR Code

Contact:
Gayle
Email: gayleis@shaw.ca or
Nora
yenwosociety@gmail.com