

In Loving Memory

Sarah Elvira (Harper) Brisendine

Obituary

Mrs. Sarah Elvira Brisendine, 79, of Clendenin Rt. 1, died yesterday in a Charleston hospital after a short illness.

Surviving are six daughters, Mrs. Ollie Hunt of Sheffield, Ala., Mrs. Bessie Hunt of Shepherd, Mich., Mrs. Nellie Amos of Ocean City, N.J., Mrs. Gracie Phillips of Gandeeville, Mrs. Betty Wayne and Mrs. Mary Foreman of Walton; two sons, Marvin of Lost City and Albert of Walton; a sister, Mrs. Clara Allen of Charleston; a brother, Asa Harper of Elkview; 31 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. in Mount Welcome Union Church at Walton by the Rev. E.L. Huffman. The burial will be in Harper Cemetery on Long Ridge. The body is at the Albert Myers and Son Funeral Home at Elkview.

Published in the Charleston Daily Mail Friday, December 21, 1962

Sarah Elvira (Harper) Brisendine

Birth: April 28, 1886

Death: December 20, 1962

Burial: Jordan Harper Cemetery
Walton, Roane County, West Virginia

Parents: Jordan Harper
(1834 - 1907)

Nancy Catherine Dodd
(1844 - 1932)

Spouse: Samuel Edward Brisendine
(1876 - 1958)

digginupbones.com

