Stand Up For Africa Gifts Catalogue

“If you love Africa, Stand Up!”

Dear friend

Welcome to the first issue of Stand Up For Africa's Gifts Catalogue. We've called this issue 'Ashanti', after the Ashanti region in Ghana, which is known for its magnificent history, culture and natural beauty.

Our Gifts Catalogue presents our special range of Stand Up For Africa (SUFA) merchandise and also provides a platform for talented African artists to showcase their beautiful work for your delight.

We're an independent charity, totally dependent on donations and the proceeds of our Gifts Catalogue to support our development projects in Africa. Your money enables us to help more deprived children and young people to build a better future for themselves and their families.

You can find out more about Stand Up For Africa as you browse through your Gifts Catalogue, or visit www.standupforafrica.org.uk.

This is your chance to Stand Up and make a difference in style! So why not treat yourself – and remember to buy some fabulous gifts for your friends and family too.

We hope you enjoy Ashanti 2006-07.

Children at risk need your help

In Africa, thousands of children are trafficked every year. Many are forced into begging, drugs, pornography or prostitution.

Our Maison de l'Enfance Project (House of Childhood Project) in Benin, West Africa, supports children who are at serious risk of trafficking and other forms of abuse. Working with our local partner ESAM, we give each child a safe home, health care and an education. With our support, they can grow into confident, independent adults who have the education and skills they need to break free from the cycle of poverty.

Thanks to the generosity of our supporters, the children involved in our project have a secure, nourishing environment in which to grow. But many more children are at risk and urgently need your help.

Montell, 10, loves our versatile, 100% cotton t-shirt almost as much as he likes reading! He supports Stand Up For Africa because he wants all children to have the chance to go to school and learn to read.

You can make a real difference

Young people in the slums of Kampala, Uganda, live in squalor with little education or health care, and few job prospects. They are at risk of getting involved in drugs or crime, or of contracting HIV/AIDS. Their future is bleak.

We support Safe Alternatives For Youth, a local charity that runs a special Drop-in Youth Centre in the slums. The Centre provides a safe environment where young people can come to learn about HIV/AIDS and reproductive health. It also offers sports and recreation, computer training and help with finding jobs.

The Centre is housed in a small building that barely has enough space for the sports equipment. The staff and young people would like to build a bigger Centre that can offer more services. Will you help them by supporting Stand Up For Africa?
