Sarah's area

This side of the road, as indicated by the red line is not Morris Property
