Hi Vann,

A lawyer yea ha!! ha!! I feel like you are doing me like you did when I was down in Jacksonville playing racket ball with you. (Laugh). I have not forgotten it. All that great encouraging of how good I was on the court and then there were a few moves that you pulled on me and made me realize that you was a great motivator (Smile). It is really good to have happy times that you can remember, so at times like these, they can bring joy and laughter. I try to do all that the Lord lay on my heart for family and expecting nothing in return. All my life I have found out that many can disappoint you and I am not talking about just the unsaved ones. Sometimes, people do a lot of talking. That is all they do. When I say I love my family, I know that they are not just words. I will show them that I love them in spite of. I know this that God do not judge us by what people do or don't do to you but how you respond.

Well, the weather is a little cold here. It has been raining here also. The winds are a little brisk. I think that makes it feel a little colder. We are doing well. We are going to be getting out of school early tomorrow. Our football team is going to the playoffs, I do not think they will make it all the way, they are not that good. For they barely made the playoffs. Well, I got to go I will continue to pray for you and all the troops. May God be with you is our prayer.

Ginny

WoW Gin!

That was a very powerful and well written email. Hmmm, I think that you should have been a lawyer, because you summarized a 10 page story in one paragraph.

I agree with what you said about the family. But no, I have not heard from anyone. I went over to headquarters to call Learinza and then call Levi and tell them that I love them and I look forward to seeing them at the next family reunion. Then I emailed Joanrita and told her to Call David for me and tell him Happy Birthday, and she did. But I have not heard or seen anything from them since. No one else in the family has sent me any emails nor care packages.

I guess that it is just me and you. :) I am going to try my best to keep you informed about me. Unfortunately, there is often 5 computers shared by 350 Soldiers. Therefore, I have to wait sometimes long hours or even days or weeks just to get a message out. I try hard to keep in contact. For those people with easy access to their computers, I hope that God touch there hearts to send me an email. :) Take care Sis. and keep in touch. Your emails bring so much encouragement to me. You and Paul Jr are representing the entire Morris Family!!!!!!!!!!!!

Very Respectfully,
Vann sends

Hello Sir,

Yes, the Veterans deserves recognition. I called my husband to let him know how proud I am of him and the service he gave for his country. I realize that many has risked their lives for the good old USA. I am very proud of you and all of the many fine troops who are serving our country now. We salute you. It is very good to hear that all is well. It is a good thing to be able to find some good tasting food over there is a plus, I bet. I appreciate the pictures of the people, Chinook Helicopter, and other vehicles you have had the privilege of using while there. I had a veteran that works for us at the school come by my office

Hi There,

I have just a few minutes to drop you a few lines. We are all doing well. We just had a 3 day weekend. We really enjoyed the time off. We just hung out at the house. I did see Quill and she was doing fine. She stopped by for a few minutes.

You told me to ask Paul about the TV for the Cowboys. He responded, saying, You know we do big things in Texas. Ha Ha.

How are things with you? I pray for you often. We know that God is with you. In times like these it is a blessing to know you have a savior who is there for you. Well I got to go. Miss you

Hi Ginny!

Thank you very much for the Email. I was soooooo happy to see your name.

I was hoping that your 3-Day weekend was well enjoyed -- that is good to hear. Please tell Quill that I said hello. As for the Mega-TV at the DALLAS COWBOYS new stadium, I knew that Paul would give that kind of answer. I was just checking to see if he was still normal. Just tell Paul not to look back, because my Washington Redskins are approaching fast. I am sure that Paul would agree that the Skins are the one team that the Cowboys would rather not play.

Things are going fine. I will have to be more watchful as I press further downrange. By Friday (11SEP), I will be at the Afghanistan / Pakistan border. There is a Gateway (Portal) between those two countries that I must go to. I will be prayerful and extremely cautious.

Thank you again Ginny for everything. Please keep in touch!

Love Always,
Vann sends

I hope that you are doing fine. I am doing good.

Here is my status: I am forward deployed to the U.S. Central Command (The Middle-East Region). The USA is shifting resources from Iraq to Afghanistan, I am a part of that effort. My current mission is to conduct Vulnerability Assessments in Afghanistan. Much of the Operational Theater/Battlespace is underdeveloped, which is why I live in a tent. My tent is located in a base compound in Kabul, Afghanistan. I have a team of six personnel working with me. We will travel to dozens of locations within the country of Afghanistan, to include Kandahar. We will not stay in any one location very long, we will remain mobile – moving from camp to camp, tent to tent.

For a duration of one week in October, I may depart Afghanistan enroute to Lebanon to conduct a mission. This is not definitive. I will keep you posted.

In November, I may depart Afghanistan enroute to Bagdad, Iraq to conduct a mission. This is not definitive. I will keep you posted.

In January 2010, I will return to Camp As Sayliyah, Qatar for further assigned missions, which is tentitively to return to Afghanistan.

If you get a chance, please send me an email and let me know how you are doing. I would love to hear from you. And of course, don't forget me in your prayers.

This email is not to be printed out, forwarded to others, or discussed with other personell outside of this circle of trust. Non-compliance may compromise me. My reason for emailing you is to update you on my status and to say "Hello & I love You"

God Bless You

PRAISE GOD!!!!
I LOVE YOU MORE, BRO!!!!

You have most definitively been in my prayers and may the Blood of Jesus be against all manner of hurt, harm and danger the enemy tries to destroy you with!!! It's SOOOOOO Good to hear from you!! NEEDLESS TO SAY, I WAS (AM?) STILL A LITTLE BENT OUTTA SHAPE WITH YOU FOR TAKING THIS MISSION . . . BUT, BECAUSE I KNOW YOU, I UNDERSTAND. . . THAT'S NOT TO SAY THAT I AGREE WITH YOUR DEDICATION, BUT THAT I RESPECT YOU AND YOUR DESIRE TO FULFILL YOUR LIFE'S AMBITIONS AND GOALS. I DON'T LIKE IT!!! AT ALL!!! BUT I UNDERSTAND. . .

Okay! Now that I got that off my chest, I feel better!

How have you been, Darlin'? I used to watch CNN and FoxNews before you left . . . my nerves are not that good. My stomach would flip every time I heard about a roadside attack. As to not hinder my own prayers, I had to stop watching so I could only focus on praying for your safe return. Sidebar Question: Would you be a candidate to be sent home if you got, say, injured while on one of your many missions? If your answer is yes, when you receive your CARE PACKAGE from me, please know that you can open and enter the box with total disregard! Not that I would place any sharp objects or something that you might hurt yourself on inside of the box, causing you to have to be sent home immediately on the next thing smoking, flying or rolling, if that's what you're thinking . . .

Anywhos, Darlin'! Send me the address where I can forward you some goodies in "recognizable packages"!! I can't wait to share a box of Frosted Flakes with you again!

All jokes aside, Bro, all the training, hard work and countless hours you sacrificed was done for such a time as this. I understand. (I still don't like it)

THANK YOU for your bravery and courage that affords us to freedom to go about our daily routines here at home during the day and our ability to sleep peacefully at night. I love you!

Smooches!

Shawna
