

Leadership masterminds are facilitator led discussions with your peers that will help you will grow together as you share best practices, experiences and ideas. You will walk away equipped with new ideas and strategies you can implement in business and life. Each mastermind lasts between 6 to 10 weeks and focuses on a specific area. As a certified coach, speaker and trainer with the John Maxwell team I draw on amazing and proven leadership content from John C. Maxwell, the #1 Leadership Guru from Global Gurus Top 30.

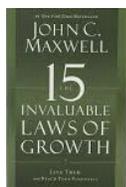

Leadership Masterminds topics include:

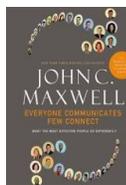

Leadershift – The 11 essential changes to shift your leadership higher. Change is so rapid today that leaders must do much more than stay the course to be successful. Some of the shifts include going from pleasing people to challenging people, changing your focus from maintaining to creating and move from being goal-oriented to growth-oriented.

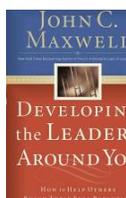

Developing the Leader Within You 2.0 – Foundational principles of leadership including: Influence, Priorities, Character, Creating Positive Change, Problem Solving, Attitude, Serving People, Vision, Self-Discipline and Personal Growth. You will learn how to develop in each of these areas so that you can lead yourself, your team and your organization successfully.

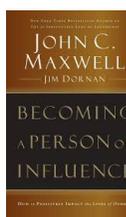

The 15 Invaluable Laws of Growth – There are tried and true principals that are certain to help a person grow and reach their full potential. A few of the key laws covered are: The Law of Intentionality – Growth doesn't just happen; The Law of Awareness: you must know yourself to grow yourself; The Law of the Rubber Band: Growth stops when you lose the tension between where you are and where you could be.

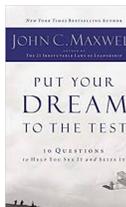

Everyone Communicates Few Connect - Connecting increases your influence in every situation. If you can connect with others—one-on-one, in groups, and with an audience—your ability to create teamwork increases, and your influence skyrockets. Leaders who have learned the art of connection experience less conflict, communicate their ideas persuasively, establishing buy-in and attracting followers.

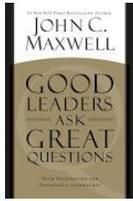

Developing the Leaders Around You – A leader is great, not because of his or her power, but because of his or her ability to empower others. Leaders need to reproduce leaders in an intentional way because those closest to the leader will determine the success level of that leader. An organization's growth potential is directly related to the potential of their people.

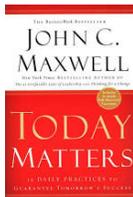

Becoming a Person of Influence - Everyone influences others. You don't have to be in a high-profile occupation to be an influencer; whenever your life connects with another person, you exert influence. Everything you do— at home, at work, or at play—has an impact on the lives around you. No matter what your goals are in life, you can achieve them faster, you can be more effective and the contribution you make can be longer lasting if you learn to develop your influence.

Put Your Dream to the Test - Dream: An inspiring picture of the future that energizes your mind, will and emotions; empowering you to do everything you can to achieve it. A genuine dream is a picture and blueprint of a person's Purpose and Potential. Most people fail to realize their potential because their dream remains hypothetical. Learn how to take your dream from impossible to achievable.

Good Leaders Ask Great Questions – Using questions to learn, grow and connect with people will help to challenge you, improve your team and develop better ideas. The questions you ask yourself and your team are so important, including: What are the top skills required to lead people through difficult times? How do I motivate an unmotivated person? How can I successfully navigate leadership transitions?

Today Matters – Today is the key to your success. The most important day you will ever experience is today. Most of us look at our days in the wrong way – we exaggerate yesterday, overestimate tomorrow and underestimate today. Unpack the 12 decisions and disciplines that John Maxwell calls his daily dozen. Learn how to do the things that can make a difference in your life and those around you.
