SECTION A
READING SKILLS

(22 marks)

1. Read the following passage carefully:

12

- (1) In a room filled with people, each face illuminated by the soft glow of their smartphones, moments drift away like autumn leaves in the wind. The constant hum of notifications fills the air, punctuating conversations like an incessant drumbeat. Every vibration or ping sends fingers flying to screens, a response ingrained by years of digital conditioning. The once-reliable tick-tock of analog timepieces has been overshadowed by the constant flicker of notifications on the wrist watch, blurring the boundaries between the virtual and the real.
- (2) Anxiety gnaws at the edges of consciousness when the phone is out of reach, a phantom limb syndrome that leaves us feeling incomplete without our digital appendage. The fear of missing out permeates every moment spent away from the screen, driving us to constantly check for updates and notifications.
- (3) Thumbs move with the speed and precision of skillful pianists, tapping out messages and scrolling through feeds with practiced ease. Yet amidst the flurry of activity, the true rhythm of life remains unheard, drowned out by the dissonance of digital noise. The weight of constant connectivity forms a hunch upon our shoulders, a physical manifestation of the burden we carry in an age of information overload. Our minds are perpetually on high alert, scanning for the next wave of excitement that comes with each like, share, or comment.
- (4) And yet, for all our efforts to stay connected, we find ourselves increasingly isolated in a sea of digital faces. Genuine connections are fleeting, drowned out by the constant clamour for attention. In the pursuit of digital validation, we sacrifice the wealth of lived experience, trading meaningful moments for fleeting glimpses of connection. The true essence of life lies not in the pixels on a screen, but in the depth of human connection and the richness of shared experiences

- (5) As we navigate this brave new world of constant connectivity, let us not forget the value of presence and the beauty of being fully engaged in the moments that matter most. For in the end, it is not the number of likes or followers that defines us, but the depth of our connections and the richness of our experiences that truly matter.

Answer the following questions, based on the passage above.

- I. According to paragraph 1, what effect do smartphone notifications have on the people in the room? 1
- II. How does the author use the metaphor of 'autumn leaves in the wind' to interpret the passing of time in the setting described? 1
- III Read and complete the following sentence suitably. 1
The phrase 'a phantom limb syndrome that leaves us feeling incomplete without our digital appendage' suggests that just as an amputee might feel pain in a limb they no longer have, individuals can feel a sense of loss or incompleteness when they are separated from their digital devices.
Choose the correct response from the two options to complete the sentence.
The concern this analogy points towards is about _____.
A. a deep (psychological) dependence on technology for a sense of wholeness or connection
B. excessive physical damage that can be caused due to constant use of digital devices
- IV Complete the following suitably with ONE advantage, with reference to paragraph 2. Designating specific hours each day to intentionally avoid checking digital devices can help _____. 1
- V Why does the writer refer to digital noise as 'dissonance' in paragraph 3? Because- 1
A. It creates a jarring and chaotic environment that disrupts focus.
B. It contributes to a sense of overload, overwhelming the senses.
C. It interferes with our ability to engage with meaningful aspects of our life.
D. It induces stress by interrupting with regular updates about the device.
- VI. Provide ONE textual evidence with reference to paragraph 3, to prove the following: The need to be perpetually engaged with digital notifications manifests in the body. 1
- VII. In the line, 'Yet amidst the flurry of activity, the true rhythm of life remains unheard...', what does the phrase 'true rhythm of life' refer to? (Paragraphs 3-4) 2
- VIII Complete the analogy with ONE word from paragraph 4. 1
whisper: quietly: _____: loudly
A. validation
B. fleeting
C. essence
D. clamour

- IX Why is it fair to say that the statement 'And yet, for all our efforts to stay connected, we find ourselves increasingly isolated in a sea of digital faces' from paragraph 4, employs irony? 1
- A. Despite the intent to connect more effectively, the result is the opposite.
 B. The writer mocks the seriousness with which people approach digital connectivity.
 C. The writer exaggerates the effects of digital connectivity to highlight its impact.
 D. Use of 'a sea of digital faces' to symbolically represent digital platforms.
- X Assess the potential challenges OR benefits of relying on survey outcomes for designing health interventions, as outlined in paragraph 5. 2

2. Read the following carefully.

10

- (1) Introduction:
 In the hasty lifestyle of today's world, the choice of snacks can greatly impact one's health and well-being. This case study aims to analyse the preference for seasonal fruits compared to packaged snacks among different age groups and the implications for overall health.
- (2) Methodology:
 A survey was conducted among individuals across various age groups, ranging from children to seniors, to determine their snacking preferences. Participants were asked to indicate their preferred snack choices and provide reasons for their preferences. The data was then analysed to identify trends and patterns among different age demographics.
- (3) Survey Examination:
 The survey encompassed a comprehensive examination of snacking habits, including not only preferred snack choices but also delving into the underlying motivations and influences guiding these choices. Beyond mere preference, participants were encouraged to articulate the reasons behind their selections, providing invaluable insights into the multifaceted nature of snacking behavior.
- (4) Results:
 The survey results revealed interesting insights into snacking preferences among different age groups:

Age-group	%	Preferred snack	Reasons for preference
Children	77	Seasonal fruits	Taste, Health benefits, Parental guidance
Teenagers	65	Packaged snacks	Convenience, Taste, Peer influence
Young adults	52	seasonal fruits and packaged snacks	Transitional lifestyle(college, beginning careers, and establishing independence), Health consciousness, Convenience
Middle-aged	83	Seasonal fruits	Freshness, Nutrition, Health consciousness
Elderly	90	Seasonal fruits	Health benefits, Digestive ease

- (5) Implications for Interventions:
 By discerning the diverse preferences among different age groups, policymakers and health practitioners can tailor interventions to address specific demographic needs. For instance, targeting educational campaigns towards parents could empower them to instill healthy eating habits in their children from an early age. Concurrently, efforts to mitigate the influence of advertising and peer pressure on teenagers could involve regulatory measures and educational initiatives aimed at promoting critical thinking and informed decision-making. Furthermore, the prominence of seasonal fruits as a preferred snack choice among middle-aged adults and senior's points towards the importance of promoting access to fresh produce and nutritional education across all age demographics.

(6) Conclusion:

The survey outcomes serve as a roadmap for designing targeted interventions that not only cater to diverse demographic needs but also nurture a culture of health and well-being. By harnessing the insights gleaned from this study, stakeholders can collaboratively work towards building healthier communities and promoting sustainable practices for generations to come.

Destroy their sleeping at night the ancient way.

(poem-The Roadside Stand)

- I Select the phrase that suggests the following:
The so-called aids are not offered out of genuine care or consent but are imposed in a controlling and perhaps unwelcome manner.
- II What does the imagery of 'swarm' NOT represent in the given extract?
A. Coordinated help B. Overwhelming force
C. Discomfort and chaos D. Neglect of individual needs
- III Complete the following suitably.
In the line, 'destroy their sleeping at night the ancient way,' the phrase 'the ancient way' refers to_____.
- IV. Select the correct option from those given in brackets, to fill in the blank.

The poet has used phrases like 'greedy good-doers' and 'beneficent beasts of prey' to illustrate the _____ (irony/satire) in the situation where those claiming to help the rural poor actually impose self-serving and detrimental actions on them.

- V. Read the assertion and the reason below, with reference to the given extract.

Assertion: The poet criticizes the way the rural poor are treated by benefactors, suggesting it instills ambition.

Reason: The interventions are overwhelmingly calming and lead to a loss of critical thinking among the rural poor.

Choose the correct option regarding their relationship:

- A. Both the assertion and the reason are true, and the reason is the correct explanation of the assertion.
B. Both the assertion and the reason are true, but the reason is not the correct explanation of the assertion.
C. The assertion is true, but the reason is false.
D. The assertion is false, but the reason is true.
- VI. State in one sentence, what cautionary advice your address to the rural poor from the extract, is most likely to include.

8. Read the following extracts and answer the questions for any one of the given two, (A) or (B)

4x1=4

- A. To visit Antarctica now is to be a part of that history; to get a grasp of where we've come from and where we could possibly be heading. It's to understand the significance of Cordilleran folds and pre-Cambrian granite shields; ozone and carbon; evolution and extinction. When you think about all that can happen in a million years, it can get pretty mind-boggling. Imagine: India pushing northwards, jamming against Asia to buckle its crust and form the Himalayas; South America drifting off to join North America, opening up the Drake Passage to create a cold circumpolar current, keeping Antarctica frigid, desolate, and at the bottom of the world.
(Journey to the End of the Earth)
- I. Complete the following suitably.
The passage suggests that visiting Antarctica offers insight into geological processes and Earth's history by _____.

- II. How does the author imply the role of geological knowledge in understanding the Earth's past and potential future changes?
- III. The writer says, 'When you think about all that can happen in a million years, it can get pretty mind-boggling.'
What is the most likely impact on the writer?
  - A. Feels overwhelmed by the vastness of geological time scales.
  - B. Is uneasy about the rapid pace of geological changes.
  - C. Feels indifferent towards geological phenomena.
  - D. Is surprised by the lack of significant geological events over a million years.
- IV. How might understanding the geological processes mentioned in the passage help scientists in predicting and mitigating future environmental changes, particularly in polar regions?

- B. I cried aloud, shaking my head all the while until I felt the cold blades of the scissors against my neck, and heard them gnaw off one of my thick braids. Then I lost my spirit. Since the day I was taken from my mother I had suffered extreme indignities. People had stared at me. I had been tossed about in the air like a wooden puppet. And now my long hair was shingled like a coward's! In my anguish I moaned for my mother, but no one came to comfort me. Not a soul reasoned quietly with me, as my own mother used to do; for now, I was only one of many little animals driven by a herder.
(Memories of Childhood: The Cutting of My Long Hair)

- I. Complete the following suitably.
Zitkala-Sa's description of her experience at the boarding school conveys a sense of abandonment through her portrayal of _____
- II. List any one emotion that Zitkala-Sa experiences as her hair is being cut.
- III. Select the suitable option to complete the following.
The metaphor of being 'tossed about in the air like a wooden puppet' contribute to the reader's understanding of Zitkala-Sa's feelings of being _____.
  - A. forced to interact with others
  - B. manipulated and controlled
  - C. preached at and insulted
  - D. made to exist like toy animals
- VI In what ways does the imagery of her 'long hair shingled like a coward's' symbolise the erasure of Zitkala's cultural heritage and the imposition of Western norms?

- 9. Read the following extracts and answer the questions for any one of the given two, A or B.

1x6=6

- A. What a thunderclap these words were to me! Oh, the wretches; that was what they had put up at the town-hall! My last French lesson! Why, I hardly knew how to write! I should never learn anymore! I must stop there, then! Oh, how sorry I was for not learning my lessons, for seeking birds' eggs, or going sliding on the Saar! My books, that had seemed such a nuisance a while ago, so heavy to carry, my grammar, and my history of the saints, were old friends now that I couldn't give up. And M. Hamel, too; the idea that he was going away, that I should never see him again, made me forget all about his ruler and how cranky he was.
(The Last Lesson)

I. What was the writer's purpose in using the metaphor of a 'thunderclap'?

II. Select the correct option from those given in brackets to fill in the blank.

The use of exclamatory marks in the first five sentences of the extract serves to express the speaker's _____ (hidden/ intense) emotions.

III. Complete the following suitably.

The activities of seeking birds' eggs and sliding on the Saar reveal two things about Franz's character before his change in perspective. First, his youthful carefree nature and second, his preference for _____.

IV. What is reflected through the shift in the speaker's perception of Mr. Hamel, conveyed through his readiness to forget the ruler?

V. Select the textual option that is closest to indicating a sense of panic.

- A. Oh, how sorry I was for not learning my lessons...
- B. Why, I hardly knew how to write!
- C. Oh, the wretches; that was what they had put up at the town-hall!
- D. And M. Hamel, too;

VI. What does the following line from the extract, showcase?

My books, that had seemed such a nuisance a while ago, so heavy to carry, my grammar, and my history of the saints, were old friends now that I couldn't give up.

- A. realization
- B. confusion
- C. expectation
- D. affirmation

B. And survival in Seemapuri means rag-picking. Through the years, it has acquired the proportions of a fine art. Garbage to them is gold. It is their daily bread, a roof over their heads, even if it is a leaking roof. But for a child it is even more "I sometimes find a rupee, even a ten-rupee note," Saheb says, his eyes lighting up. When you can find a silver coin in a heap of garbage, you don't stop scrounging, for there is hope of finding more. It seems that for children, garbage has a meaning different from what it means to their parents. For the children it is wrapped in wonder, for the elders it is a means of survival.

(Lost Spring – Stories of Stolen Childhood)

I. What does Saheb's statement about finding money in the garbage reveal about his daily life and aspirations?

- II. Select the correct option from those given in brackets to fill in the blank.
Describing garbage as 'gold' metaphorically elevates its value to the children, helping the reader understand the _____ (dynamic / desperate) conditions under which these children live, where even garbage can represent crucial economic resources.
- III. Complete the following with a suitable reason.
Children continue to scrounge in the garbage because _____.
- IV. How does the perception of garbage differ between children and adults in Seemapuri?
- V. What is implied by the description of rag-picking as having 'acquired the proportions of a fine art' in the excerpt?
A. Rag-picking is an undesirable and simple task that anyone can do without effort.
B. Rag-picking has evolved into a complex skill that is valued within the community.
C. Rag-picking is a temporary activity that does not significantly impact the community.
D. Rag-picking has the status of an artistic hobby that children pursue for enjoyment.
- VI. What is the reason for Saheb's eyes 'lighting up'?
A. The immediate experience of finding something valuable.
B. Discussing his findings with others.
C. Reminiscing about past findings in the garbage.
D. Planning future scavenging expeditions

1.	Answer the following questions, based on the passage above. (Descriptive Passage)	12
I	They lead to instant interruptions in conversations. [language / expression may vary but the idea should remain relevant]	1
II	It illustrates how moments are fleeting and unnoticed, lost amid the distractions of digital interactions / it illustrates how easily significant moments can drift away when overshadowed by the focus on technology [language / expression may vary but the idea should remain relevant]	1
III	A. a deep (psychological) dependence on technology for a sense of wholeness or connection	1
IV	reduce the anxiety associated with the need to constantly be connected	1
V	C. It interferes with our ability to engage with meaningful aspects of our life.	1
VI	Yes it does - develop a hunch / mind is constantly alert (any one)	1
VII	The phrase refers to the natural, meaningful, and often quieter moments that make up human existence and relationships—those that occur away from the digital chaos. The writer draws our attention towards the genuine life experiences, such as face-to-face conversations, quiet contemplation, enjoying nature, and real-world interactions, that are overlooked or drowned out by the constant noise of digital activity. [language / expression may vary but the idea should remain relevant]	2
VIII	D. clamour	1
IX	A. Despite the intent to connect more effectively, the result is the opposite. (Option B is satire, C is hyperbole and D is metaphor)	1

X	They are – (2 points to be elaborated for either) Benefits: Survey outcomes can offer a detailed understanding of the specific needs and preferences of various demographic groups, which can enhance the effectiveness of health interventions by making them more targeted and relevant. Additionally, using these data-driven insights can foster a sense of collaboration among stakeholders, promoting a unified approach towards health and sustainability. Challenges: Relying on survey outcomes may present challenges such as the risk of biases in the data collection process, which can twist results and lead to ineffective interventions. There's also the issue of survey fatigue among participants, potentially reducing engagement and the accuracy of the data gathered. Moreover, translating survey findings into practical interventions requires resources and continuous stakeholder commitment, which might not always be feasible.	2
2.	Answer the following questions, based on given passage.	10
I	... how busy daily routines influence people to opt for quick and convenient eating options, often at the expense of nutritional value	1
II	A. Primary purpose	1
III	The TWO points are – a) Health focus, as fruits are widely recognised for their health benefits, and this aligns with the study's goal to analyse snacking habits and their implications for health (making fresh fruits a relevant choice for understanding healthy snacking behaviours). b) Comparative analysis, as the study aims to compare the health implications of seasonal fruits versus packaged snacks. Including fresh fruits allows researchers to directly evaluate preferences between natural, healthier choices and processed, potentially less healthy alternatives.	2
IV	Influence – sentence 1 ; Motivation – sentence 2	1
V	D. Seema - teenager (taste and convenience) ; Mohan - elderly(health, digestive ease) ; Arindam -young adult (health and convenience )	1
VI	Due to their increased health needs and focus on foods that are easier to digest and nutritionally beneficial.	1
VII	Targeted interventions can effectively address specific health needs by focusing on the unique factors influencing each demographic's snacking choices. For example, educational campaigns for parents can foster early healthy eating habits in children, while initiatives for teenagers can reduce the impact of advertising and peer pressure, promoting wiser food choices. Also, ensuring that middle-aged and older adults have access to fresh produce supports ongoing health maintenance, directly contributing to overall improved health outcomes across the lifespan.	2

I	An instance of hope or resilience – Saheb’s continued search in the garbage, driven by the occasional discovery of a rupee or a ten-rupee note, symbolises his hope and resilience against the overwhelming odds of his harsh life. This reflects the theme of enduring hope amidst poverty and destitution - the human spirit’s capacity to dream and hope, even in the terribly dire circumstances -- suggesting that the desire for a better life can exist independent of one's current state of poverty	2
II	(Any one) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ The image of her aging mother - ‘pale as a late winter’s moon,’ -- conveys the fragility and the inevitability of aging -- highlights the physical changes brought by time and evokes a sense of gentle, serene decline rather than abrupt decay</li> <li>▪ The image with the vivid, lively description of young trees sprinting and merry children spilling out of their homes --- contrasts sharply with her mother's stillness and silence --- enhances the sense of her mother's isolation in her old age / the relentless passage of time that spares no one -- life’s transient nature</li> </ul>	2
III	Represents -- the tension between local traditions and foreign occupation	2

	The church clock -- symbol of local, everyday life and continuity --- in stark opposition to the Prussian trumpets, which symbolise disruption, military power, and the enforcement of foreign rule Highlights the theme of loss and the struggle to preserve one's cultural heritage against overwhelming odds
IV	The author's writing style - often blends a conversational tone with introspective moments -- deeply affects the reader's engagement and understanding of the narrative. Use of direct dialogues interspersed with reflective commentary – this approach not only makes the interactions more dynamic and engaging but enhances the reader's insight into the complexities of personalities and themes being explored	2
V	Dual – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ The tendency towards greed and deceit - society, driven by wealth and gain, ensnares individuals, reducing their existence to a constant struggle to escape from materialistic enticements</li> <li>▪ The potential for redemption through empathy and kindness –kindness and trust by the ironmaster's daughter, Edla, inspires the peddler to reclaim his essential humanity and escape the identity of a thief - signified by his decision to return the stolen money and leaving a note explaining his thoughts about the world being a rattrap</li> </ul>	2
VI	Largely due to the leadership and advocacy provided by Mahatma Gandhi -- his involvement brought national attention to their plight --highlighted the importance of civil rights and nonviolent resistance Gandhi's strategic approach to negotiations &amp; his insistence on nonviolent protest -- empowered the peasants to stand up against oppressive landlords --- led to their immediate victory -- inspired a broader movement for social and economic justice across India	2
11.	Answer any two of the following three questions in 40 50 words each :	4
I	The significance of the toy tiger lies in its stark contrast to the dangerous live tigers the Maharaja had been hunting throughout his life. Its role in his death brings up the themes of irony and fate central to the story. It illustrates -- despite human efforts to control or escape destiny, it can manifest in the most unexpected and trivial forms. The toy tiger symbolises -- the ultimate futility of the Maharaja's efforts -- points to the folly of those who believe they can master fate through power or violence	2
II	The literal journey involves Charley, discovering a supposed 'third level' at the Grand Central Station--a portal to the year 1894. The metaphorical journey-- Charley's inner longing for a simpler, more reassuring past—a common human desire to retreat to a time perceived as better or less complicated. The significance - their portrayal of the universal quest for happiness and fulfillment -- together, these journeys explore themes of escapism, the subjective nature of reality, and the deep-seated human need for connection and comfort in familiar but idealised, settings.	2
III	Derry is of the pessimistic view whereas Mr. Lamb is of the optimistic view point. Both are disabled but still view life from different perspectives.	2

	Both protagonists challenges with disfigurement are depicted with a stark realism that leans towards pessimism, yet interactions that offer genuine connection hint at underlying optimism -- suggest the possibility of emotional survival despite physical and social barriers

12. Answer ANY ONE of the following two questions, in about 120-150 words 5

A.
 'A Roadside Stand' focuses on the economic disparities between rural and urban areas, and 'Aunt Jennifer's Tigers' delves into the gender-based inequalities within marriage and society.

A Roadside Stand	Aunt Jennifer's Tigers
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depicts the struggles of rural individuals facing economic inequality.</li> <li>• Highlights the disparity between urban and rural lifestyles.</li> <li>• Reflects on the exploitation of rural communities by those in power.</li> <li>• Explores the loss of traditional ways of life due to modernisation and industrialisation.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Illustrates the oppression faced by Aunt Jennifer within her marriage.</li> <li>• Reflects on the expectations and restrictions placed on women, socially.</li> <li>• Explores the theme of domestic suppression and its impact on women's autonomy.</li> <li>• Highlights the contrast between Aunt Jennifer's inner world and her external reality.</li> </ul>

Impact on Bearers:

- A Roadside Stand -- rural folk are portrayed as struggling to make ends meet due to economic disparities, leading to feelings of frustration and helplessness.
- Aunt Jennifer's Tigers – Aunt experiences oppression and suppression within her marriage
- Both sets of bearers face the psychological and emotional toll of their respective inequalities, resulting in a longing for freedom and empowerment.
- Despite their challenges, the bearers in both poems demonstrate a desire to assert themselves through small acts of defiance or dreams of liberation.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Aspiration: Sophie dreams of owning a boutique or becoming a fashion designer.</li> <li>• Constraints: Financial limitations and other expectations, such as her father's disapproval, hinder Sophie's pursuit of her dreams.</li> <li>• Pursuit of Dreams: Despite the challenges, Sophie remains determined to achieve her goals, showing persistence and creativity in her pursuits</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Aspiration: Subbu aims to succeed in the film industry as a poet, actor, and contributor to Gemini Studios.</li> <li>• Constraints: While Subbu faces challenges, such as criticism for his perceived sycophancy and overshadowing of his literary achievements by his success in films, he navigates these obstacles with grace and humility.</li> <li>• Pursuit of Dreams: Subbu's dedication to his craft and ability to adapt to various roles within Gemini Studios reflect his unwavering commitment to his pursuits.</li> </ul>

13.	Answer any one of the following two questions, in about 120-150 words	5
A <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Incorporation of Traditions:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>→ Religion - how religious beliefs influence character actions and decisions.</li> </ul> For example, Sadao's internal conflict may be influenced by his moral beliefs shaped by religious teachings. <li>→ Family Bonds - how relationships in the family impact character interactions and motivations.</li> For example, Hana's concern for the safety of her family and the potential repercussions of harbouring an enemy soldier could drive her actions. <li>→ Patriotism - how national loyalty and patriotism create tension and conflict in the story.</li> For example, Sadao's duty as a citizen and as a doctor may conflict with his compassion towards the wounded soldier, highlighting the complexities of wartime allegiances. </li></ul> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Narrative Techniques:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>→ Setting - how the wartime setting amplifies the moral dilemmas faced by the characters.</li> The backdrop of war intensifies the stakes and adds urgency to their decisions. <li>→ Motivation - how cultural influences shape character motivations and drive the plot forward.</li> The characters' actions may be guided by deeply ingrained cultural values and beliefs. <li>→ Sources of Conflict - the key conflicts stemming from cultural differences, expectations, and wartime circumstances.</li> These conflicts drive the narrative forward and heighten the tension. <li>→ Pacing - how the pacing of the story reflects the characters' internal struggles and external conflicts.</li> The pacing may fluctuate to convey moments of tension, reflection, and resolution. </ul> </li> </ul>
B.          (Any two narrative techniques)          [The examples may be references and not direct quotes] a) First-Person Narrative: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>→ Technique - The story is narrated from the first-person perspective of Charley, which creates an intimate and personal recounting of his experiences and thoughts.</li> <li>→ Effect - This technique allows readers to directly engage with Charley's desires and fears, making his longing for escape and the nostalgia for a simpler past more tangible.</li> <li>→ Textual Evidence - Charley states, "But that's the reason, he said, and my friends all agreed. Everything points to it, they claimed. My stamp collecting, for example; that's a 'temporary refuge from reality.'"</li> </ul> This personal reflection shares his internal justifications and how others perceive his escapism. b) Detailed Descriptive Language: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>→ Technique - The use of vivid and specific descriptions of settings and times, particularly Charley's descriptions of the third level of Grand Central Station.</li> <li>→ Effect on Themes - These descriptions not only build a believable world but also vividly paint the past, stressing the theme of nostalgia and the allure of escapism to a seemingly better and simpler time.</li> </ul>

- Textual Evidence - “Then I saw why; they were open-flame gaslights.” and “everyone in the station was dressed like eighteen-ninety-something; I never saw so many beards, sideburns, and fancy mustaches in my life.”

These details highlight the historical setting Charley escapes to, filled with elements from the past.

c) Symbolism:

- Technique - The story uses the ‘third level’ as a symbol, representing not just a physical place but a mental escape into another time.

- Effect on Themes - The third level serves as a metaphor for the psychological refuge one seeks from the modern world’s anxieties, underlining the theme of escapism.

- Textual Evidence – Charley mentions, “Grand Central has been an exit, a way of escape—maybe that’s how the tunnel I got into.”

This line explicitly connects the physical space of the third level to the concept of escaping reality.

d) Contrast and Irony:

- Technique - The stark contrast between Charley’s mundane, modern life and his adventures on the third level introduces a layer of irony.

- Effect on Themes - This contrast enhances the nostalgic appeal of the third level while ironically pointing out the impracticalities of such escapism.

- Textual Evidence - “The clerk figured the fare—he glanced at my fancy hatband, but he figured the fare—and I had enough for two coach tickets, one way. But when I counted out the money and looked up, the clerk was staring at me.”

This shows how out of place modern elements are in the past, highlighting the nostalgic yet challenging nature of his escape.
