Terms and Conditions for a FIRST approved NSRA Rodeo

By signing this agreement, the Rodeo Committee, hereinafter referred to as the Committee agrees, if approved, to conduct and produce a Nebraska State Rodeo Association (NSRA) sanctioned rodeo and to abide by the following agreement:

The Committee agrees:

The following men's events will be held-bareback riding, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, tie down roping, team roping, and bull riding. The following women's events will be held-ladies breakaway roping and barrel racing. Ranch Broncs, Mixed Team roping and Steer Roping are optional events.

The committee will add at least $100 per event to the purse. The committee will remit to the NSRA 6% entry fees.

Each contestant will pay an office charge of $27 of which $11 will be remitted to the NSRA, $13 will remain with the committee and $3 per contestant will be divided between the judges

No stock charge will be assessed to the contestants except in the optional events.

The committee shall use the NSRA central entry system. Central entry office will take entries, draw positions, provide the committee with day sheets & local secretary a complete and accurate set of books.

The committee agrees to have banners, signs, flags, etc for any of the NSRA corporate sponsors at their rodeo.

The committee agrees to have their local secretary collect amounts due the NSRA from contestants before said contestants are allowed to compete. A list will be provided by the NSRA.

The committee shall be a member in good standing of the NSRA and remit to the NSRA the current year's dues.

All hired personnel including bullfighters, clowns, announcers, pickup men & stock contractors must be in good standing w/the NSRA. Judges need to be members in good standing with the NSRA. (Co-approved rodeos must have at least 1 NSRA approved judge)

All rodeos must follow the standard order of events in slack and in performances unless they have obtained permission from the NSRA Executive Board prior to callbacks. The standard order of events is as follows: barebacks, steer wrestling, breakaway, saddle broncs, tie down roping, team roping, ladies barrels, and bull riding. Optional events can be added to the order of events wherever the committee needs them.

The NSRA agrees:

To sanction the said rodeo for participation by its members and to apply money won at said rodeo to the yearly event and all around standings.

To guarantee the payment of all checks written by its members for entry fees received from the said member at the approved rodeo.

NSRA will contact the committee after rodeo approval and notify them of their entry date, time, and the entry number.

The Committee agrees to hold the NSRA harmless from any and all liability incurred in the production of the described rodeo and from any and all liability, which might arise from the negligent acts of individual members.

Please accept this request for approval of our first approved NSRA rodeo as described in the above terms and conditions and on the Request for Approval Form. We agree to follow the above terms and conditions and the NSRA Rule book in order to have the NSRA sanction our rodeo.

Signature of Committee Officer: _____ Date: _____

The NSRA Rulebook has a mandatory tractor rake at 5 (10 runners) or 6 (12 runners) in a performance. What is your max number of barrel racers in a perf? _____

Will contestants be required to pay admission at the gate? Yes or No (circle one) If required to pay admission, they must be refunded when paying entry fees

The committee will designate a person responsible for setting up the rodeo. This can be a committee member or the stock contractor. On the day entries are taken, the NSRA entry line will contact that person with the number of entries for each event. They will then decide how many contestants they want in each performance or slack. The person designated must be available the day entries are taken. (Wed evening)
