Syracuse Shakespeare-In-The-Park is still accepting applications for its 2019 theatre program entitled, "Kids Doing Shakespeare," (KIDS) set for July 8th through 12th, 2019, 10 am to 3 pm daily, for students entering grade 5 through 12th graders. Rookies and returning students will be taught together in Thornden Park's Carriage House in cooperation with the Syracuse Parks, Recreation & Youth Programs Dept. This exciting programming mix of speaking skills, stage techniques, costume design, set painting and Renaissance music & dance usually sells out quickly so don't delay. All students will perform some part of the chosen scene, as a culminating activity, on the last Friday of our intensive (but fun) theatre week. The scene will be selected from our 2019 main stage production of The Tempest. Six students have already signed up for this great course. Your last chance at regular tuition, (goes up to $155 on 5/28) including snacks and supplies, incredibly reasonable at a bit less than $6 per class hour. We have been able to keep the cost low due to the generous support from the John Ben Snow Foundation and Syracuse Parks.

A completed page 2 of the application and a check payable to SSITP will reserve your child a place in the class; first come, first served.

Fees may be waived at the discretion of the SSITP Board of Directors based on need after a review of each application submitted. All participants must bring their own lunch (except our last day lunch from Brooklyn Pickle) and provide their own transportation. Snacks will be provided each day and all students get a prize on show day. Students are asked to register as soon as possible. Don't be disappointed!

Applications are available by contacting Ronnie Bell, online at our website, www.ssitp.org or by registering online at TicketLeap.com
