

TITLE IV-E COLLABORATIVE Presents

Cultural Considerations when Working with Diverse Families

Jonathan Barnett

Jonathan Barnett is a Director of School Partnerships and Clinical Supervisor for the Seneca All-In programs in the South Bay. A 10 year Seneca veteran, Jonathan started as a mental health clinician in a day treatment program for middle school students. He then moved on to support students from TK through 8th grade with school-based mental health services. From 2014 through the start of 2018, Jonathan worked as a School Climate Coach, guiding school teams in implementing MTSS, PBIS, and other school-wide interventions. In addition, Jonathan has been traveling to Bay Area schools to provide workshops around the impact of trauma, behavior modification, and other topics for the last 4 years.
