

Title IV-E Collaborative Presents

Best Practices in Clinical Supervision: Nurturing Growth, Independence, and Clinical Excellence through Professional Development

Nicole Nelson

Nicole Nelson is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with a B.A. in Cross-Cultural Studies and Sociology and a M.A. in Counseling Psychology. She has over 20 years of experience in Wraparound, TBS, outpatient, school, residential, case management, and permanency programs as a Teacher, Counselor, Clinician, Clinical Supervisor, Program Director, and Regional Executive Director. Nicole is currently a Training Content and Delivery Director with Seneca Family of Agencies and offers trainings in leadership development, clinical supervision, equity practices, and the Unconditional Care model.

Thursday, March 11, 2021

9:00 am - 12:30 pm

ZOOM

Registration ends Wednesday, March 3rd

Link sent out Friday, March 5th

Training Summary:

Clinical Supervisors are responsible not only for oversight of services to youth and families, but also with supporting the professional development of supervisees in their clinical, administrative, and professional skills. This course will review assessment tools to better understand supervisees growth areas, strategies that supervisors can use to facilitate growth in supervisees, and tips for particular challenges that may come in the supervisory relationship.

Eligible County Employees

For questions contact Staff Development & Training at Rianna.Garcia01@ssa.sccgov.org

Must obtain Supervisor approval prior to registering

Eligible Non-County Employees

Register on-line here:

<https://register.asapconnected.com/Courses.aspx?CourseGroupID=28977>

If you have questions please email us at:

T4e.collaborative@gmail.com