Working with Active Substance Abusers

Jennifer Baity, LCSW

JENNIFER BAITY, LCSW, LAADC is a licensed clinical social worker and licensed advanced alcohol and drug counselor. She is the Program Director at the Mental Health Rehabilitation Center at Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital. She provides staff and intern supervision and training; provides individual, group, and family treatment for adults with serious and persistent mental illness who also have problematic substance use histories; and co-developed the co-occurring disorders (dual diagnosis) program at the San Francisco Behavioral Health Center. She has provided in-depth training to clinicians providing services to youth and adults since 1991 and regularly trains staff in mental health and substance abuse programs throughout the San Francisco Bay Area and beyond. She specializes in training on diagnosis and treatment of individuals with co-occurring mental health and substance use conditions and motivational interviewing.

Do you have clients who are currently using drugs and alcohol? Well you're not alone. Studies have found that 90% or more people who use substances problematically don't want to stop - at least not immediately. Learn clinical strategies to engage and treat this population. You can make a difference in engaging with and helping these clients improve their quality of life, even if they decide to continue using drugs. Learn about drugs and their effects, current trends, diagnosis of substance-related problems, engagement strategies, harm reduction, motivational interviewing, and individual, group, and family treatment strategies.
