St. Patrick's Potluck

There was a good turnout with people bringing their corned beef and cabbage dishes to share. The weather was decent but there were shared memories of a couple of years ago when only twelve hardy souls plowed out from the snowstorm and showed up at the hall to share a meal and tales of digging out.

Demo Garden

We had a demonstration garden meeting March 17th with 6-8 enthusiastic people showing up.

There was a slideshow and a tour walk to the garden in the “Backyard”. We had a discussion about building something hands on for the garden area maybe in May.

There will also be another meeting for planting some seeds in the garden on Monday May 19, 2025 at 1-3p.

Flat Broke After Taxes Spaghetti

Dinner Wednesday, April 16, 6pm

This event was started years ago by Cal Lidderdale. I, Dawn Sciarrotta, have kept up with that tradition and happy to do so.

Dawn will be providing:

Spaghetti and Meatballs. Salad and rolls. Vegetarian Spaghetti sauce.

Coffee, lemonade, iced tea with be served.

Please bring a dessert and feel free to BYOB.

Dawn would appreciate Helpers for set up and kitchen help at 5pm. Thank you.

There will be donation jars available since the BFCC is starting our fundraising campaign for the “Backyard,” the acreage next to the community center at our April event. We do have a committee set up and the plan this year is to fix the drainage and have an entrance and exit road on this property. Also, at this time we can only say it’s in the first stages of life! We hope to raise a few thousand by the end of 2025.

LINUX - Back in the 1980's it was called UNIX - and was expensive. In 1991 a Finnish student Linus Torvalds asked the question: Hmmm, could I create a clone? He did and he let it loose on the world under what he called Copyleft - the opposite of Copyright. You can have it for free, you can make changes, if you let someone else have a copy it has to be for free. So what is Linux? It's a computer operating system - same as MS Windows - which is Copyrighted and expensive. Ah, and what can I do with Linux? Anything you want to do. MS Windows has "Word" - Linux has "Librewriter". and LibreCalc and Libredraw and other office programs. How about a web browser? Choose from over 18. Depending on how you like the looks, the functions, the layout. Cadd, games, > long list.

What if I want to try it out? Cost? Free. How? Well there are several versions. (think ford, chev, gmc, honda, etc). Personally I use Fedora. Ask Google for "fedora download", stick a thumb drive in your computer, download and reboot. - Don't click on the button [install to hard drive - yet] and go walkabout. It will run a bit slow because it's running off the thumb drive. Once install on your hard drive it's about 4 times faster the MS Windows.

Is it any good? Well 98% of the top web servers run ... Linux. 100% of the top 500 supercomputers run ... Linux.

If you would like a demonstration and there are enough people I can set up a demonstration at the Club. Contact: chucka@blackforest-co.com Subject Linux Class

Black Forest Hands & Feet *Spread the word.**

Black Forest is home to wonderful people who desire to help others and make the Forest a better place to live. We are neighbors helping neighbors. Helpful people with handyman skills have come together to form Black Forest Hands & Feet. Hands & Feet was created to match the skills of Black Forest residents to places that need those skills.

The purpose is to help people with smaller fix-it projects around the house that the homeowner is unable to fix or cannot afford to have fixed. There is no charge for this assistance.

Projects would be handled by two people who would come to the home for the project.

Each homeowner would be responsible to pay for materials or parts required.

If you have a fix-it project that we might tackle for you, go to www.friendsofblackforest.org/handsandfeet/ to complete a project request. If you don't have computer access, contact Dawn at 719-425-9311 to complete a request.

After receiving the request, we will review your submission and get back to you. We look forward to helping you.

Important Note from Terry Stokka:

Dear Friends,

It is time for my annual reminder to check your mailbox or driveway to make sure your house numbers are clear and easy to read. When I drive around the forest I notice (even in my own neighborhood) a lot of weathered, almost black posts and boards with black numbers that are very hard to read. Think from the perspective of the fire department or ambulance or sheriff trying to find your home in the dark, possibly complicated by snow, rain or fog. Your house number needs to be clearly marked at the end of your driveway next to the road.

I recommend painting the post or board white and then mounting the black numbers. Reflective numbers are even better. I have 4-inch black numbers on reflective background pasted to my mailbox. There are other creative ideas but the key is to have your house numbers clearly visible from the road for any emergency vehicles.

The Black Forest Fire Department will install a number marker for $35 that is large and easy to read. Go to <https://www.bffire.org/driveway-signs/> to learn more about this.

"The numbers should be visible from both directions along the road."

It's great to see spring coming, isn't it? Terry
