Message from the Commander

Greetings Compatriots,

Spring has sprung and Easter is upon us.

April is Confederate History Month and I trust that ALL cemeteries have been flagged. This is my favorite time of the year when our Blessed Savior conquered sin and death, and God our father wakes the earth from her winter slumber.

The Division picnic is this weekend at the Confederate Reunion Grounds in Mexia, Brenda and I will be attending and I hope others from our camp will as well.

The Division Reunion is just around the corner so if you're planning to attend and haven't registered yet, please do so.

I look forward to seeing everyone again at our next meeting where Brenda will be presenting the presentation of her 2nd Great Grandfather. Until then,

May God Bless each of you and
May God Bless Dixie.

Dave

The federals looked with awe and respect upon the sterling countenance of our beloved General Robert Edward Lee. Per a letter penned by Grant, Lee did not offer his sword to Grant, nor did Grant request it. Grant said later that he would have never considered asking for the sword of so great a soldier.
