CHIEF OFFICIALS

SOKE SHOGO KUNIBA

Master Kuniba began his Martial Arts training at the age of 5 (1940) under the expert guidance of his father Kosei Kuniba (also known as Kosei Kokuba or Yukimori Kuniba) who was a senior student of the famous Choki Motobu. The younger Kuniba also studied under other notable masters of the time such as Ryusei Tomoyori (Kenyu-Ryu) and Kenwa Mabuni (Shito-Ryu). Over the past forty years, Master Shogo Kuniba has perfected his technique in Karate-Do and other Martial Arts such as Aikido, Judo, Kyudo, Kobudo, and Iaido. Today he is recognized the world-over as a true Meijin (living master) of these arts having attained 8 Dan recognition in Karate-Do, Iaido, Kobudo and Goshin-Budo (a combination of Judo, Aikido and Jiu-Jitsu). He is the 3rd Soke (family head) of the Ryukyu Karate-Do Motobu-Ha and the 1st Soke of the Nihon Karate-Do Motobu-Ha Shito-Ryu. Additionally he is the Kaicho (president) of the Seishin Kai Karate Union, a world-wide organization headquartered in Osaka, Japan.

SPECIAL GUESTS

SHIHAN RICHARD BAILLARGEON

Richard Baillargeon has over 25 years experience in the Martial Arts. His notoriety came when he served as a Seishin Kai vice president and USA Honbucho from 1964-1974. In 1974, Shihan Baillargeon founded and organized the National Karate and Jiu Jitsu Union. As President of the NKJU, Shihan Baillargeon continues to make a noteworthy contribution to the growth of Martial Arts in America.

SHIHAN JAMES HERNDON

A student of Karate-Do since 1962, Shihan Herndon has attained Dan rank in Tae Kwon-Do Jido Kwan, Shorin-Ryu, and Shito-Ryu. In 1973 he received the title Shihan (exceptional teacher) from the Nippon Shorin-Ryu Karate-Do Kenshin-Kai and was appointed USA Honbucho (head representative) for that organization. First introduced to Master Shogo Kuniba in 1971, Shihan Herndon recognized that Kuniba-Ha Karate-Do had much to offer and so in 1974 began to transition from Shorin-Ryu to Shito-Ryu. In 1980, while visiting Master Kuniba in Osaka, Japan, Shihan Herndon examined for 5 Dan and received recognition from Seishin-Kai as Shihan. He was subsequently appointed USA Gijitsu-Bucho (technical director), Rijicho (chief of directors), and Honbucho. His dojo is now the USA Hombu Dojo for Seishin Kai Karate-Do.

SHIHAN BILL PRICE

Bill Price began his study of Karate-Do over eighteen years ago in Okinawa. Prior to learning Shito-Ryu, Shihan Price had attained Dan rank in Goju-Ryu Karate-Do. His introduction to Master Kuniba came in 1971, and after a number of years of dedicated training, Mr. Price attained the 5 Dan rank and Shihan recognition in Motobu-Ha Shito-Ryu. He was appointed USA Honbucho for Seishin Kai in 1977 and served in that capacity through 1979. In 1980, Shihan Price was appointed a vice president of Seishin Kai.
