

When I think of the concept of praying without ceasing, I think of sitting down on a park bench with God, like he's a dear and close friend. Sometimes we just need to sit down with God and have an honest conversation. The truth is that he already knows the situation, he just wants us to take the time to talk with him about it and then LISTEN.

My Frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

Psalm 139:15

No problem, no struggle we have is beyond God. He knows us better than we know ourselves and promises his wisdom. What are you struggling with today?

God's wisdom in my circumstances:
