Students Rewarded for Good Grades and Attendance

Students at Beallsville were rewarded for getting good grades, having perfect attendance, and showing good behavior for the second nine weeks.

Students in grades K-3 were rewarded with a movie and ice cream last week in their classrooms.

Students in grades 4-6 were rewarded with pizza.

Students in grades 9-12 were given Convenient Food Mart gift cards.

Staff Spotlight: Mr. Moore

Where were you born?

Mr. Moore was born in Barnesville but has lived in Beallsville for 72 years.

What was your most memorable moment here at Beallsville?

Something Mr. Moore holds dear to his heart is this school. When they tried to close down the school and didn't succeed, Mr. Moore was happy and proud.

How long have you been a Teacher?

Mr. Moore has been teaching for 51 years but has been at Beallsville for 50 years.

What other jobs have you had besides teaching?

Mr. Moore was a basketball coach for Beallsville High School Boys Basketball and is currently the Athletic Director.

How do you keep a positive outlook everyday?

His job is very stressful, being both an athletic director and teacher. Mr. Moore tries to keep a positive attitude and a positive learning environment because he knows the hardships that some of the students go through.

Classroom Activities

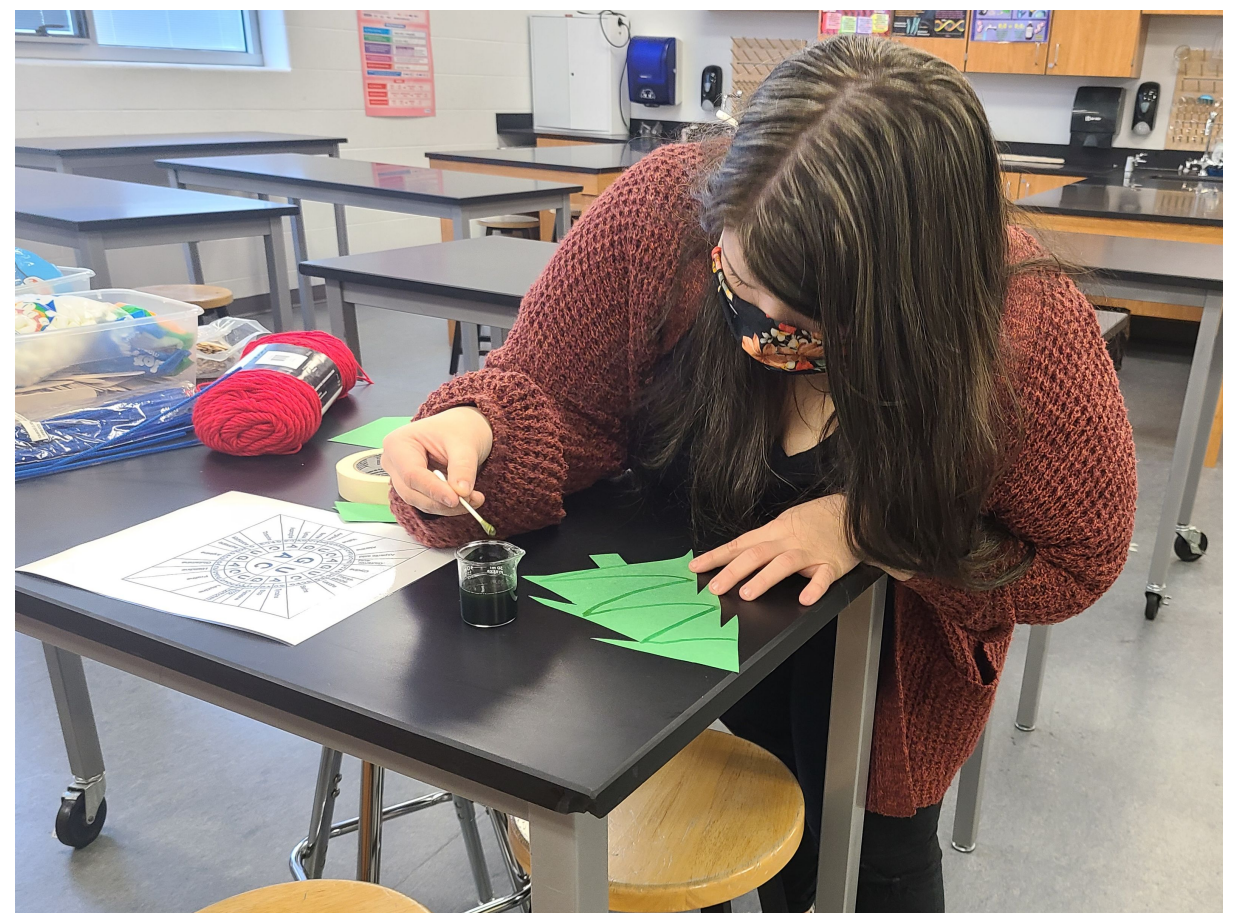

Barbie Doll Drop Test

Students in the Mathematical Modeling and Reasoning class completed a project where they tried to find inner regression model. Students that participated in this project were Kyon Falkenstein, Harley Nalley, Shey Osborne, and Brian Dunn. The project was to drop a Barbie doll tied with rubber bands off a balcony to see how close it could get to hitting the ground but without hitting the ground. Kyon and Brian's team won. The project took about a month due to hybrid schedule.

Christmas Tree Mystery

Mrs. Pittman's science classes created Christmas trees before Christmas break. They used blue mystery solution to decorate the paper trees and when the solution dried, it turned white.

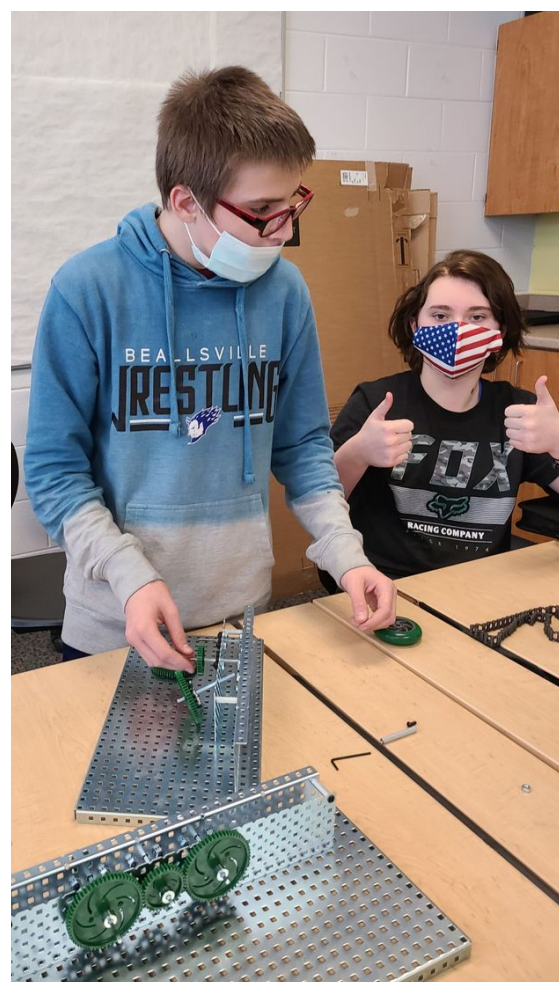

Dining Etiquette

The Introduction to Family and Consumer Science classes learned proper dining etiquette. They compared formal and informal dining settings. Students learned how to set a table, proper manners, fold napkins, and how to tip based on quality of service. Students spent part of class folding napkins into creative objects.

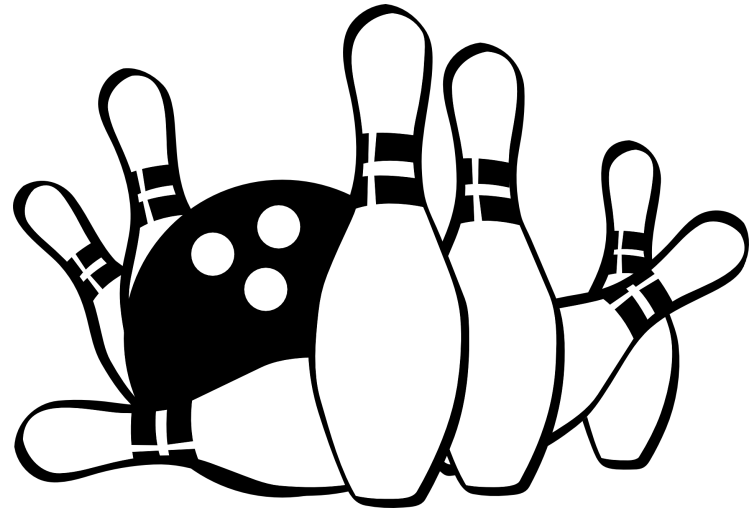

Engineering Class Creates Gears

The 8th Grade Pre-Engineering class used Vex equipment to build gears. After they learn more about how the gears work, they will eventually use them to create robots.

Winter Sports

Competing From a Distance

Due to COVID, the bowling teams are unable to compete in person with each other. To compete with other schools, both teams bowl at their own bowling alley and send their scores to the opposing team once finished to determine the winner of the match.
