
You Can Help

We rely on donations to keep the shelves stocked. Increasing need in the community sometimes outpaces available food.

Here are ways you can help:

- donate food – dry, canned and veterinary special diet cat and dog food are accepted
- become a financial sponsor
- make ongoing contributions
- give money –

Checks can be mailed to

Thank you for your support!

"I can't express how much that [the food bank] means to me. I've been so worried I may have to give them [my pets] up. But I can't, they are all that keeps me going. My only family. Thank you."

4 Paws Pet Food Bank

People are sometimes faced with the tough decision to buy groceries or to feed their beloved pets. Shelters are experiencing increased owner surrenders by those who can't afford to feed their pets.

4 Paws Pet Food Bank fights pet food insecurity by providing emergency pet food assistance to anyone who needs it.

Our goal is to keep pets in their homes. This enables people to continue to enjoy the positive benefits of pet ownership while at the same time keeping pets out of shelters.

Feeding Needy Pets in Our Community

The Need is Growing

We need your help to keep the shelves full!

CARMA is seeking both individual and business donors of dog and cat food (canned and dry) to keep the 4 Paws Pet Food Bank consistently stocked with pet food for families in need.

A recent study by PetSmart Charities found that due to financial stress nearly 1/3 of pet owners worry about feeding their pets.

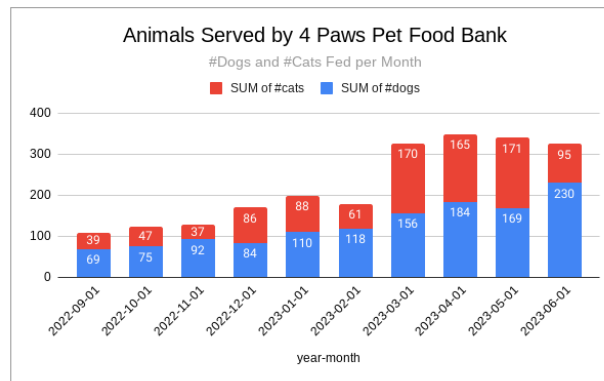

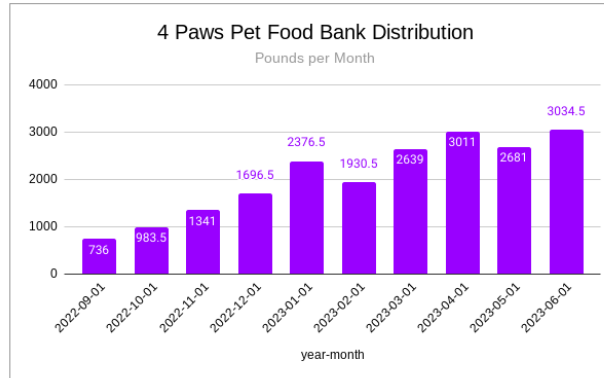

Unemployment, supply chain issues, the rising cost of pet food and veterinary care have had a major impact on the ability of people to feed and care for their companion animals.

Shelters and rescue groups are overwhelmed with animals being surrendered because their owners can no longer afford their care.

Food insecurity and anxiety have increased, leading to greater use of the Pet Food Bank and causing shelves to empty faster than they can be filled.

Please help with a donation!
