In The Beginning

In 1996, Creative Endeavors Consulting emerged as a boutique consulting firm through Marketing Communications Management (MCM) Group Inc., to be the marketing and multimedia arm for team- inspired business opportunities and fulfillment.

MCM Group Inc. was founded in the late '80's to advise in the areas of intellectual property, based upon the founder's expertise and talent; creating cost-effective programs to work with manufacturers, property owners, retailers, financial, creative individuals and others, assisting them in their expansions of markets, product lines, and investment opportunities into new brands for licensing opportunities.
