New Women's Group:

There is a women's group starting the second week of December. The group will be led by Karen Payne, who is a pastoral counselor and has led over seventeen successful groups.

The group will have four to five members and each member will need to be seen only once with Karen to make sure they are a good fit for the group.

During the individual session Karen, will go over the guidelines for the group, so everyone will be comfortable with the way the group runs and the topics.

The only group criteria for the women is that they have experienced some form of trauma in their past, or present, which includes ptsd, domestic violence and or depression and anxiety, in which they are wanting some healing and sharing with other women in recovery.

The group members will decide how long the group will last and what is the best day and time to have the group. After we have the allotted numbers for the group, the group will be closed and no other members will be added.

You can signup for the group by emailing me and we can schedule a day and time to meet individually to see if you are interested. The exact date/time will be announced soon.

We are now accepting donations for the January Garage Sale! The pricing ladies are requesting to open up opportunity for donations to start NOW!
