

Vice President of Academic Affairs, Dr. Eric J. Bargerhuff

Eric J. Bargerhuff, Ph.D. is the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dean of the College, and Professor of Bible and Theology. He served in pastoral ministry in churches in Ohio, Illinois, and Florida and continues to do Interim Pastor service as well as church consulting. He received his Ph.D. in Biblical and Systematic Theology from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois.

He is also a member of the Evangelical Theological Society. In addition to his love for the church, Eric loves to write and is the author of four books, his latest release is entitled Why Is That in the Bible published by Bethany House Publishers in 2020. Other titles: Love that Rescues: God's Fatherly Love in the Practice of Church Discipline (2010), The Most Misused Verses in the Bible (2012), and The Most Misused Stories in the Bible (2017). Co-Author, What is God Saying Here?: How to Navigate Awkward, Troubling, and Bizarre Passages We Would Rather Skip (Grand Rapids: Zondervan Reflective, anticipated publication in 2025).

Eric is an avid fan of Indiana University basketball (as he grew up in rural Indiana), loves the Chicago Cubs, and enjoys singing, writing, cooking, biking, and football. Eric and his family live in the heart of Trinity, Florida.
